

MS Society to hold first-time walk in north Halton

Michael Halashyn of Georgetown was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis (MS) three years ago and this year he and his family will be walking in the first-ever Super Cities Walk for MS, to be held in north Halton on April 19.

"It's ironic that I waited until walking was difficult before getting involved in a walk," said Halashyn. "Please support our walk and help us all beat this thing."

Beginning from E.C. Drury School for the Deaf, in Milton, on Sunday, April 19, 9:30 a.m., Milton and Halton Hills residents will be among the more than 26,000 walkers in 39 communities across Ontario to raise funds for MS programs and services. The local walk is organized by the Halton chapter of the MS Society.

Halton chapter organizers are expecting 250 north Halton walkers will raise $25,000 in the first local walk. Proceeds will provide services for local residents.

Multiple sclerosis attacks the central nervous system of people in the prime of their life causing varied symptoms including numbness, loss of balance, extreme fatigue and possible paralysis. Its cause is unknown, its cure undiscovered and its effect on each victim unpredictable.

Tens of thousands of Canadians have the disease— one of the highest rates in the world.

For information about registering for the Super Cities Walk for MS, to sponsor a walker, or to volunteer for the event, call the MS Society, Halton chapter at (905) 639-6333 or e-mail: <http://www.worldchat.com/ms/walk>.

Cattlemen send support

The local Peel/Halton Cattlemen Association has pledged $1,000 to assist those in eastern Ontario in the aftermath of the ice storm that devastated the area. Their pledge encouraged the Bruce County Cattlemen's Association to match the amount committed for relief work. Due to their respective initiative, the Ontario Cattlemen's Association will be contributing an amount of $5,000.

A Springtime Message - The Way To Go!

Don't delay your family holiday plans. It's time to get away. 'Do' an 'all-inclusive', or 'cruise and stay'! Cruise the Caribbean, the Med, or up Alaska way. Or make travel across CANADA be 'your way'! See your Professional Travel and Cruise Officials. You'll like what they have to say, The vacation planning they'll do with you, Will 'make your day'!

SPEAKING ABOUT TRAVEL AND TOURING - TOURISM AWARENESS WEEK MAY 1-7 has been officially proclaimed by Mayor Ann Mulvale for OAKVILLE - a time when all those who cater to tourism in the community have an opportunity to make everyone aware of what the community has to offer - for residents to learn of the many, many attractions, both historic and modern, the town has to offer.

A GREAT IDEA! - one that all communities throughout the region should have - put all the local 'areas of interest' on display, so that the local folk can be even more proud of what they are a part of, and can boast and show them off to their neighbours and incoming guests.
