Elliott edged 2-1 in consolation final

It took double overtime for Oshawa's TPA Investment Planning to edge Elliott Custom Brokers 2-1 in the B final of the Oshawa Kiwanis Girls Hockey

Tournament. After playing two scoreless periods, Elliott finally got on the board when Alison Bisson set up Andrea Ovenden's goal with 4:16 to play in the third. With Elliott goalie Emma McDonald playing a strong game it looked like the lead would hold up but Oshawa finally broke her shutout bid with 1:41 remaining in regulation.

The teams played through a scoreless overtime period before Oshawa finally won the game with 3:38 to play in the second extra period.

Ovenden and Leah Emmerton each scored three goals in the tournament while Kylie MacGillivray and Laura Thompson each had one.

Holly Williams and Camille MacGillivray each drew a pair of assists. Courtney Playford, Olivia Martyniuk, Jaime Broadbent, Erica Wilson, Jaime Velten, Heaven Hill, Katelyn Gingras and Carly Stevenson also set up goals.
