

Lions' money talks

El Lloyd, president of Georgetown Lions Club (left) and Vic Bristow, chairman of the Lions Club sight and hearing committee (right), present a cheque for $2,000 to Chief Librarian Betsy Cornwell of the Halton Hills Libraries. The money will be used for the library's talking books program. The Lions Club has been supporting the talking books program for eight years. The library has more than 1,500 talking books for the visually impaired.

Seniors have 24 tables of wares at Saturday's craft show

For the past couple of years the Seniors Centre has been well served by Roland Lobb as secretary of the board and news columnist for the local paper. Roland has asked to be relieved from the writing job so that he may devote his time to other seniors' matters. Many thanks are due to Roland for his efforts on our behalf.

The "new kid on the block" (me— Dave Hastings) has agreed to take on the task of writing our column.

Recently we celebrated our annual open house and registration of members. We would be remiss if we did not thank all those who worked so hard to make it a successful day; and special thanks to Allison's for their donations for the barbecue.

Please note the following dates and activities and plan to join us:

- October 3— Crafts show at the centre from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Over 24 tables of items for your viewing. Hourly draws for turkeys and hams will be held. Come and enjoy the day.

- October 5— Men's night out at the centre. Come and play cards, pool and make some new friends at 6:30 p.m.

- October 6— Two events this day. At 12:30 p.m. a Thanksgiving lunch will be served by June Gilson's group. Cost is $4. At 7 p.m. it's a euchre party. Both events promise lots of fun and fellowship.

- October 16— Some tickets are still available at the centre for the performance of Westminster Chimes to be held in the John Elliott Theatre at 2 p.m. Special guest is Gordie Tapp. Tickets are $10. Please note: The Seniors Centre will close at noon on this day.

- Don't forget the ever popular trips to Casino Rama on the last Monday of each month. Book early to reserve a seat on the bus.

Q: Why did the chicken cross the road?

A: To live longer.

By walking across the road, the chicken gained a healthier heart and lungs... and a positive attitude.

Cara rose to the challenge

In 1996 Cara was introduced to the Kids Help Phone program. Seeing an opportunity to help others, she reached out to her community, recruiting 21 young people from Niagara area high schools to attend the 1997 training conference. All 21 of these young volunteers are now actively involved with Kids Help Phone. Cara Agar was honoured last year as an Ontario Junior Citizen.

There are young people in our community who have risen to the challenge. If you know a young person, aged 6 to 18, who is involved in worthwhile community service, a special person who is contributing while living with a limitation, or a youth who has performed an act of heroism, help us recognize their contribution — nominate them today!

Nominations will be accepted until October 31, 1998. Contact this newspaper or the OCNA at 905-639-8720, Loc. 230.
