Judy and David, known as "Canada's hottest new children's entertainers" are coming to Georgetown!

Arts Alive presents this Juno award-winning duo in two performances at the John Elliott Theatre on Sunday, October 18. Show times are at 2 and 4 p.m. Tickets are $10 and can be purchased from the box office, 877-3700.

Judy and David's target audience is children 2 to 8, but their sing-along style concerts are pure musical fun for the whole family! Concert-goers can look forward to a high energy performance featuring both original songs and old favorites.

They have been described as part performers, part musical cheerleaders, possessing the ability to get the audience involved as participants, not merely spectators.

Bursting onto the music scene in 1993, Judy and David's music is known to millions of children around the world through their television performances and best-selling albums including My Little Yellow Bus and My Little Red Truck. Their most recent release, Livin' in a Shoe, won the 1998 Juno award for Best Children's Recording and the Parent's Choice Gold Award. It has also received recognition from Billboard and Child Magazine as one of North America's best children's albums.

Judy and David have many projects on the go, including development of their very own television show, in response to the popularity of their appearances on the Family Channel, YTV, TVO, Treehouse and CBC.
