The variety group, Westminster Chimes, performs at the John Elliott Theatre on Oct. 16.

Comedian Gordie Tapp is special guest star Song and dance group frolics in Fall Follies at the JET on Oct. 16

If you enjoy music, fun and laughter, Fall Follies is a "must see" show on Friday, Oct. 16 at the John Elliott Theatre.

Headliners in the variety show of singers, dancers and comedians, will be popular Canadian performer Gordie Tapp, the Westminster Chimes, and Georgetown singer Sandra Greig.

Tapp is a Canadian comedy legend, who has been delighting radio and television audiences for over 50 years. Best known for the television variety show, Hee Haw, Tapp is also well known for his charitable work with the Big Brothers Association and Shrine hospitals. His most recent honor was his appointment as a Member of the Order of Canada.

The Westminster Chimes is a Greater Toronto Area group of veteran entertainers of singers, dancers, musicians and comedians performing in the British music hall tradition. Georgetown performers Margaret Eggleton-Kaye and Merv Kaye are members. Eggleton-Kaye will include her North American-famous comedy bit: The Queen. Kaye, a veteran singer with big bands, will show off his emceeing and singing skills.

The Chimes have travelled across Ontario performing to popular acclaim including at the annual Seniors Jubilee at the Roy Thomson Hall in Toronto each summer.

There are two shows to catch: a 2 p.m. matinee and an evening performance at 8 p.m. Tickets are $10 for the matinee and $12 for the evening performance. Tickets are available at the John Elliott Theatre Box Office, 877-3700. Proceeds for the matinee will go to the Georgetown Seniors Centre. The evening show is presented by Arts Alive, and co-sponsored by Alcatel Telecom.
