Gordie Tapp entertains here Friday

World famous "Cousin Clem" comes to Georgetown this Friday, Oct. 16 at the John Elliott Theatre.

Eggleton-Kaye will include her North American-famous comedy bit: The Queen. Kaye, a veteran singer

GORDIE TAPP

Comedian Gordie Tapp will share the stage with the Westminster Chimes in the Fall Follies at the John Elliott Theatre. There will be two shows; a 2 p.m. matinee and an 8 p.m. evening performance.

with big bands, will show off his emceeing and singing skills.

Tapp is a Canadian comedy legend, who has been delighting radio and television audiences for over 50 years. Best known for the television variety show, Hee Haw, has been inducted into the Country Music Hall of Honor as well as the Country Music Hall of Fame. His most recent honor was his appointment as a Member of the Order of Canada.

Special guest will be local soprano Sandra Greig. Tickets are $10 for the matinee and $12 for the evening performance. Tickets are available at the John Elliott Theatre Box Office, 877-3700.

Proceeds for the matinee will go to the Georgetown Seniors Centre. The evening show is presented by Arts Alive, and co-sponsored by Alcatel Telecom.
