

Penny remembered

The players and parents of the Georgetown Tyke Gators, with the help of Sheridan Nurseries, recently planted a tree outside Gordon Alcott Arena in memory of Penny Haynes. Penny was an avid lacrosse fan who died of cancer this summer and the team wanted to do something special to honor her contributions. On hand to dedicate the tree were (from left) Penny's husband Bruce Haynes, friends Adam McGourty and Gail McGourty, Andrew McGourty of the Tyke Gators, Penny's son Chris and daughter Laura, Penny's mother Margaret Skillen and brother-in-law Kevin Haynes and friend Debra Flanagan.

HOLIDAY PACKAGES SELLING FAST
Early-Booking Deals Create Strong Demand.

Thousands of Canadian vacationers, anticipating further declines in the value of the loonie, have been taking advantage of the many available early-booking deals and snapping up the best holiday packages, and at the same time protecting their hard-earned holiday funds against possible future surcharges. Canada's major holiday operators, like Sunquest, are reporting very strong demand for their most popular packages to sunshine destinations. Some even, are close to being sold out! Sunquest's early-booking program features generous discounts when you book by 30 November, 1998. This, coupled with a "no surcharge" guarantee once you have booked, has created unprecedented demand for many of Sunquest's wide range of programs to all the popular Southern destinations. In addition, Georgetown Travel's clients can receive further bonus of up to $200.00 per couple in American Express Travellers Cheques, just for booking prior to the early-booking deadline.

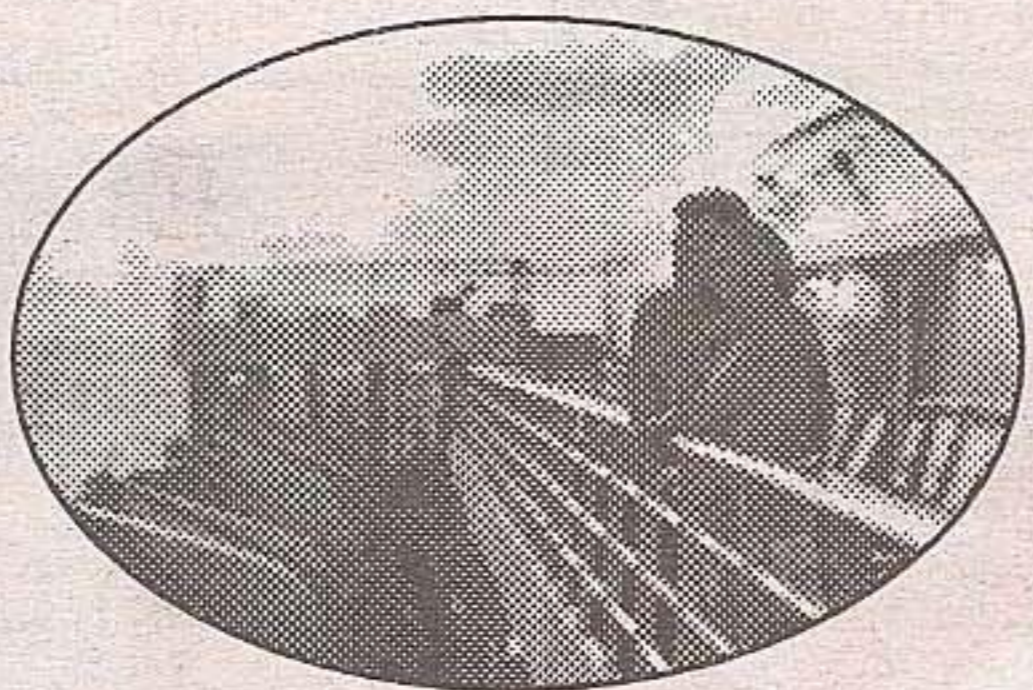

In particular, Sunquest reports much increased demand for their "All-Inclusive" packages to island resorts throughout the Caribbean and Mexico. This carefree vacation style, where just about everything - flights, hotel, meals, drinks, sports and entertainment, even tipping! - are included in one up-front Canadian dollar price, is growing in popularity year-after-year among value-seeking Canadians. They like the idea of not having to worry about a heavy bill - in US dollars! - at the end of their stay. The professional vacation consultants at Georgetown Travel are specialists in All-Inclusive holidays; they have experienced many of the resort properties first-hand and can advise you on the right one for you. Ask for Sunquest's brochure dealing scores of All-Inclusive packages to resort destinations in Mexico, the Caribbean and Central America. Our advice - don't delay! - make sure of your first choice of holiday resort and destination before it is snapped up by another smart, value-conscious vacationer.

Cruise the World - and Save! As cruise holidays grow in popularity the best savings, and the best selection of cabin accommodations, are to be had when you book well in advance of the sailing date. A study of the cruise brochures shows that most lines offer excellent savings for early bookings - as much as 40-50 percent in some cases! At Georgetown Travel we represent all the major cruise lines, and can give you up-to-date information on the best cruise offerings to the Caribbean, Panama Canal, Mexico, Bermuda, Alaska, the Mediterranean, The Orient, South Pacific, or Around the World!
