Police presence puts end to rumble

Halton Police were made aware of a potential fight, set for Friday night (Oct. 9) in retaliation to a fight involving about 200 youths at Gordon Alcott Arena the previous week. In response to the information Halton Police increased the officer presence in the Maple Ave. and Guelph St. area of town that night.

At about 8:50 p.m. police stopped several vehicles full of youths and found items that could be considered weapons such as knives, clubs and bars. The items were confiscated and the youths' parents were notified.

Just teasing

World champion hair stylist Marc Anthony visited the Georgetown Marketplace Mall recently, courtesy of Shoppers Drug Mart, and took time out to offer styling tips to the audience in the centre court. Joanna McTaggart was one of the many people to ask Anthony's advice.

Brampton man faces two charges

A Brampton man has been charged with possession of stolen property and driving while suspended after he was stopped by Halton Police on Guelph St. Tuesday at about 12:15 p.m.

After the driver was stopped a check by police revealed the plates on the vehicle he was driving were stolen.

Charged is Stephen Thomson, 32, of Morden Cr., Brampton. He is to appear in court on November 16.
