Rep roundup

Atom Raiders prove to be gracious hosts

The Georgetown Major Atom Raiders dropped Tri-County home games against Milton and Oakville last week.

In the match with Milton, the Raiders fell behind 3-0 early before losing a 4-3 decision. Against Oakville, the Raiders took a 1-0 lead but wound up losing 6-1.

Dave Walkington, Ryan Reist and Eric Davis scored for the Raiders in the loss to Milton while assists went to Mike Carter, Chad Skinner, Jonathon Malatesta and Walkington.

Ryan Williams scored the lone goal against Oakville on a pass from Mike Clarizio. Goalie Jordan White came up with several tough stops.

Major Novice Raiders

Jessie Modzelewski's goal as time expired gave the Georgetown Major Novice Raiders their first win of the season as they nipped Caledon 4-3.

After a scoreless first period Byron Hackett, Jeff Pierce and Chris Ackroyd tallied to give the Raiders a 3-1 lead after two periods.

After Caledon tied the match 3-3 in the third, Modzelewski took passes from Pierce and Hackett as time wound down and bounced a shot off the Caledon goalie's mask. After a brief discussion among the officials as to whether the goal would stand, the goal was awarded to Georgetown.

Minor Novice Raiders

The Georgetown Minor Novice Raiders dropped a 4-2 decision to Brampton as Kyle Andrews and Adam McGourty found the net for the Raiders.

Shane Greaves and Troy Breen added single assists.

In an earlier match the Raiders fell 5-1 to Oakville, 7-0 to Caledon, downed Guelph 6-0, lost 5-1 to Milton and opened the season with a 2-0 win over Hespeler.

Dean Banasco had the lone goal in the loss to Oakville.

Against Guelph Ryan Elliott earned the shutout while Banasco connected three times. Greaves and Breen added the other goals while Cameron Flint drew two assists. Single helpers went to James Miziolek, Andrews, Ryan Thomson, Steven Worby, Breen and Greaves.

In the loss to Milton Flint had the only goal for the Raiders on a pass from Greaves.

Sonja Bradley and Elliott provided the Raiders with shutout netminding as they blanked Hespeler.

Banasco and Worby had the goals for the Raiders with McGourty drawing one assist.

Minor Atom Raiders

The Georgetown Minor Atom Raiders managed one tie in three Tri-County games last week.

The Raiders earned a 7-7 tie against Milton while falling 9-0 to Oakville and 3-1 to Caledon.

In the tie with Milton, Greg Heywood led the way with three goals while Mitch Thompson, Chris Darling, Corey McLaughlin and Kyle Bolton also found the net. Thompson drew two assists with singles going to Darling and Mike Clost. Against Caledon, Brady Gingras scored from Bolton and Ryan Putnam.

Raiders near .500

Raider Jeff Hladysch, but is trying to make the most of his opportunities.

"Jeff's a really good goalie and he deserves the time he gets but it is hard to come in and watch," the 17-year-old said. "You still have to come in ready to play every night and prove that you can play when you get a shot."

Though Saturday's game showed how far the Raiders have come, one night they learned just how far there is left to go as they met the up with the undefeated Milton Merchants. Milton pounced on the Raiders for four goals in seven minutes and coasted to a 9-2 victory. Page and Milton native Andrew Sandziuk scored for the Raiders. Sandziuk then added two more against Niagara.

RAIDER RAP: Rob LaRose had a goal and an assist against Niagara and Curtis Carr and Shane Kanyo each had a pair of assists....Scott MacDonald's point streak was snapped at 11 games on Friday....The six-goal victory was the Raiders' largest margin of victory since 1994.
