Harvestfest fund-raiser nears a sell-out

The Kiwanis Club of Georgetown is thrilled with community response to their Harvestfest evening—a wine tasting, dinner and silent auction, to be held on Friday, Oct. 30 at Holy Cross Church.

"With 22 of 30 tables sold, we're predicting a sell-out," says organizer Dave Ashbee. "Our silent auction items include a family portrait by Lou Pinto, a $500 shopping spree at Georgetown Marketplace and a Robert Bateman print."

Many people are interested in the wine tasting, to be conducted by Brian Banyard of Authentic Wines & Spirits. Community support for the proceeds recipient, Georgetown Little Theatre, is strong.

Tickets are $30 each (tables of eight are reserved) and available at Shoppers Drug Mart in Georgetown Marketplace. If you have an item or service to donate, call 877-2321.
