

Crisp Productions holds open auditions

Crisp Productions is producing The Great Sebastians, a hilarious comedy/mystery about a musical hall mind-reading duo and it needs a few more actors.

Anyone interested is welcome to attend a casting Nov. 18, at Sacre Coeur Church Hall. Arrive between 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., and bring a photograph.

Already lined up for the feature roles are professional actors Pat Boothman and Neville Worsnop. However the play calls for many roles, some speaking, others with few or no lines.

Rehearsal dates are Jan. 4-20. Show dates at the John Elliott Theatre are Jan. 21-30. For more information call Jack Crisp (519) 833-1002

Guides seek volunteers

Another year of Guiding is well under way.

Georgetown is comprised of Georgetown East and Silvercreek Districts. There are a total of 400 girls registered and 30 units which are already active.

There are six branches involved in Guiding. Sparks, 5-6 years; Brownies, 7-8 years; Guides, 9-11 years; Pathfinders, 12-15 years; and Seniors Branches, 15-17 which consists of Rangers, Cadets and Junior Leaders.

Trefoil Guild, adult Guiders who are not longer in units, but do play a important role within the Districts complete the full circle.

Girl Guides cannot function without adult volunteers. There is a need for Guiders—adults leaders for both Spark and Brownie branches. If you are interested in becoming involved, call Lynn at 877-1726 or Crys, 877-9964.
