If you have information regarding the above crimes, please contact #1 District Criminal Investigations at 878-5511, ext. 2416 or Crime Stoppers at 825-TIPS (825-8477) or 1-800-222-TIPS.

Callers will never have to identify themselves.

Local psychiatric patients now being sent to PMH

Due to the restructuring of hospitals, Halton Hills residents will now be referred to another hospital for psychiatric emergency and inpatient services.

Residents, who previously went to Oakville-Trafalgar Hospital, are now being sent to Peel Memorial Hospital. The North Halton Mental Health Clinic (NHMHC) will continue to provide outpatient mental health services.

focus on your future

A university education can benefit your career and personal growth...

Whether you want to focus on a certificate, diploma, degree or study for personal interest, with Wilfrid Laurier University you'll find courses that suit your needs and your schedule.

Part-time students need flexibility. Many people find it difficult to attend classes in conventional university settings. Laurier provides that flexibility. In Brampton, Laurier offers undergraduate courses in many disciplines through distance education.

We're here to help you achieve your educational goals.
