

Numbers didn't add up for seniors on recent Casino Rama trip

Fifty-five left, but only 52 returned on the Casino Rama bus last month. It seems Marie Louth was having so much fun she missed the call to board and missed the bus.

Two Good Samaritans volunteered to stay and search for her. All three arrived home safely on a later bus. The next Rama trip is Monday, Nov. 30. Cost is $5.

The Seniors Centre Bazaar held Nov. 7 was, by all reports, a great success. Turkey Draw winners were: Shirley Van Der Muelen; Jane Vickery; Siena Van Hoekelen; Terry Bignell; Bill Oates. 50/50 draw winner: Marilyn Greenham. Maple Syrup Draw winner: Edith Massar. In House Draws-Decorative Bench: S. Holdyn; Six Week program: Bernice Majvery; Teddy Bear: Charline Robertson; Teddy Bear: Fate Mabisunia; Cozy Cover-up by Crafts: Susan Garland.

Mr. Maple Syrup Don Davis has a display set up at the centre. If you enjoy pure maple syrup on your pancakes or maple spread on your toast, check it out and place an order in the book. All proceeds go to the centre to help in our extension projects.

Next "Men's Nite Out" is Monday, Nov. 30. Start time is 6:30 p.m. and cost is $1.

Georgetown Alliance Church is hosting a Seniors Appreciation Day on Saturday, Nov. 21 from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. If you are interested call 873-0249.

Don't forget our Christmas dinner on Thursday, Dec. 3 at noon in Holy Cross Church Hall. Tickets are still available.

Another fine Remembrance luncheon was served on Tuesday, Nov. 10. Approximately 120 sat down to the meal catered by Helen McNeil's group.

Approximately 75 attended our Remembrance evening on Thursday, Nov. 12 at the centre. A full program of entertainment was provided by our choir conducted by Barbara Hobart; a melody of old tunes by Edith Klee and Walter Thorndyke followed by a sing-along.

Veteran Chuck Tuddy gave a short address and closed with a reading of In Flanders Field.

Community Corner

We welcome all non-profit community notices. Please fax (873-0398) or drop off your notice to our office (211 Armstrong Ave.). We regret notices cannot be taken over the phone. Please include a name and phone number with each notice.

Bazaar goes Saturday

The annual bazaar will be held tomorrow (Saturday, Nov. 21) at Union Presbyterian Church. This popular event will run 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Come for lunch. Lots of really exciting items are available for purchase.

Welcome!

Mason David Loggie, son of David and Julie Loggie of Union Presbyterian was born on Nov. 2. Congratulations!

Music and Celebration

Norval Presbyterian Church is proud to host La Classica Women's Chamber Choir of Brampton on Saturday, Dec. 5. This is a change from the last announced date of November 14. La Classica is conducted by Roger Bergs, a graduate of the Julliard School of New York, and a talented composer. The program will feature Christmas music in both a serious and a lighthearted vein.

Bring the children— childcare will be provided, but they'll enjoy the music, too. Start time is 7:30 p.m., refreshments will follow.

Montgomery Christmas

The annual Montgomery Christmas celebration in Norval will be held Nov. 28. The Anglican and United churches will be holding their annual bazaars, and the Presbyterian Church will hold its second annual craft sale. The manse tea room will be open at 1 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door. Canoe Country and Crawford's will both be open with displays, special items, and book signings. Don't forget that the Norval Clayworks is now located at Crawford's. See you all there!

November meeting of Acton Ladies Auxiliary draws 38

The November meeting of the Acton Legion Ladies Auxiliary was held with 38 members present. The 50/50 draw was won by Kathy Verbeek.

The meeting was brought to order with President Lucy Synnott in the chair. Zone Commander Ethel Eastwood visited our Auxiliary, and was quite pleased with the way our organization was run.

Maxine Burton and Yvonne Teasdel were accepted to become new members, and will be initiated in January.

A motion was made to donate $100 to each of the following organizations: Salvation Army, Halton Women's Place and the Red Cross to help the flood victims in Honduras.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Marion Piehl and family in the loss of her husband Fred.

Happy 75th birthday to Comrade Marg McNabb.

Well, Lily has been busy planning our Christmas party, which is quite a task to arrange. The party will be held at the Legion, Dec. 3 at 7 p.m. at a cost of $11.50 each for dinner. Bar opens at 6 p.m. Lily has managed to get some men to prepare and serve this meal. If you did not put your name on the list please call Lily, 853-2906, and let her know you would like to attend.

Tomorrow (Saturday Nov. 21), we have three teams of bowlers going to Hamilton for the zone bowling. Bus leaves at 10:30 a.m. Good luck, ladies.
