

Stewarttown packs a sting at provincial tourney

The Stewarttown Stingers girls volleyball team turned in its best finish since 1989 at the recent provincial championships.

Stewarttown finished fourth in a field of 48 teams, the best placing by the school since it finished second nine years ago. The Stingers were the only team from outside Durham Region to finish in the top four in either the boys or girls tournament.

"We didn't do as much hitting but we covered the tips and that probably helped us get as far as we did," said coach Brian Cosgrove.

Stewarttown compiled an 8-2 record in pool play, sweeping three two-game matches and splitting with both St. Martin de Porres and Meadowcrest. That advanced the Stingers into the elimination round where they defeated both Sunset Heights and W.G. Davis in the elimination round.

Stewarttown faced Dr. Carruthers in the quarterfinals. Led by their three Ontario Volleyball Association team players, Kirsten Peden, Katie Campbell and Shannon Whitteker, the Stingers turned in a strong effort and won 15-9, 15-10.

In the semifinals, Stewarttown faced Glendue, a small but quick team. Playing in its ninth match, fatigue began to set in and the Stingers dropped the opener 15-4. After making a few substitutions, they bounced back but came up short in a 15-12 loss.

Dr. Thornton was the opponent for Stewarttown's third-place game. The Stingers played two close games, 15-12, 15-13, but both went in favor of their opponents.

"They had a big, strong, hitting team," Cosgrove said. "We're more of a defensive team and their offence was just able to apply pressure better than our defence."

Other team members are: Courtney Campbell, Sarah Black, Devon MacLean, Jody Nurse, Cristy Nurse, Naira Pemberton, Adrienne Thompson, Jenn Alison, Sarah Moorecroft, Amy Osborne, Andrea Ovenden, manager Alyssa Bain and coach Scott Reed.
