

Frazers named Brampton board's top farm family

Innovation and tradition characterize this year's Peel Farm Family of Year winners, the Frazers of Elmoak Farms at RR4 Georgetown.

George and June Frazer and son Bill and his wife Lois, are sharing the Brampton Board of Trade honor for their years of dedication to their profession. They were presented with their award at the Brampton Board of Trade/Peel Federation of Agriculture dinner Saturday evening at the New Junior Farmer building on the Brampton Fairgrounds.

"We honored," said Bill Frazer. "It's hard work but it's rewarding. Farming is like anything else you strive to do, you try to do it right and do the best job you can."

The Frazers' goal in farming is simple: to prosper in agriculture and carry on the tradition from father and grandfather. In addition they want to provide a healthy environment to raise their two sons, Kevin 12, and Glenn, 9.

Due to their efforts, their dairy farm has been able to support two families plus a full-time married employee.

George and June have contributed 49 years of effort in building Elmoak and Bill has worked full-time on the farm since graduating from the University of Guelph. In 1996, George and June retired and the younger generation took over sole ownership.

The 325-acre Elmoak on Mississauga Rd. has 250 tillable acres on which the Frazers employ innovative environmental improvements.

The Frazers are involved in many farm and community organizations. George Frazer has been a member of the Peel Committee of Adjustment, Peel Land Division Committee, the Peel Seed Association (a co-op of farmers) and the Peel Milk Committee. His wife, June is an active member in the Cheltenham United Church, the Peel Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and the Peel Cancer Society.

Bill and Lois are active members in the Alloa Community School Association, Home United Church, Cancer Society, 4-H Association, and Brampton Fair Board.

Acton seniors planning trip to Owen Sound

On Monday, Nov. 30 we have a trip to Owen Sound to see the northern lights. We have lunch at Knox United Church, a Christmas Show and a tour of the lights.

Don't forget our monthly euchre at the centre on Dec. 2, 7:30 p.m. Cost is $2 and includes a light lunch.

Our Christmas Dinner is Friday, Dec. 18 at noon. Entertainment is by the Harmonichords. The cost is $15 per person. For rides call the centre at 853-5951.

We still have a few seats left for the bus trip to Casino Rama to see the Guse Family Dec. 29.

The dance Nov. 7 was a success. The music was good, not too loud so you could talk to the folks at your table. Coffee and punch were available all evening. Neil Miller won the door prize, Pat and Paul Thompson and Pauline and Walter Barlow won the spot dances. We are working on plans for another "do" later so please watch for further news.

Line dancing and Sizzlin Seniors are going well. Anyone interested come on out and join the "Happy Gang."
