Police blotter

Teen faces assault charge

A 16-year-old Georgetown boy was charged with assault in connection with an incident at Georgetown High School involving another youth Nov. 18. Police say a 16-year-old Georgetown boy was punched and kicked during the dispute. He wasn't seriously injured.

Police cruiser vandalized

The radio antenna was bent, roof lights and a wiper on a headlight were broken on a Halton police cruiser parked on Mill St. E. in Georgetown Sunday. The incident occurred while the officer driving the Volvo was on an investigation. Anyone with any information on the incident is asked to call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS or 878-5511 ext. 2415.

Catholic test numbers clarified

A story on Grade 3 testing results for the Catholic District School Board in the Wednesday edition of The Independent & Free Press gave incorrect figures concerning the overall percentage of Halton Catholic students who were at or above the provincial standard.

Due to a recent government change in the grading system, level two is no longer considered part of the provincial standard. Therefore, the numbers should have been 57 per cent (reading), 63 per cent (writing) and 47 per cent (math) for Halton Catholic students.

The public board numbers reported were correct. The Independent & Free Press regrets the error.
