Halton Hills Girls Day of Champs

Lawlor claims Junior championship

Rosie Baker delivered two clutch goals as Lawlor & Co. needed a shootout to edge Halton Hills Rad & Tire 3-2 for the Halton Hills Girls Hockey Association (HHGHA) Junior Division championship.

With time winding down, Baker scored on a breakaway to complete a comeback from a 2-0 deficit and force overtime. When it came time for the shutout, Halton Hills Rad goalie Emma McDonald and Lawlor netminder Melissa Laborie each turned aside the first three shooters. Baker sewed up MVP honors when her wrist shot beat McDonald.

Laborie still had to stop one more shooter. Halton Hills Rad looked to have tied the game but their goal was disallowed because the player came to a complete stop before shooting.

That wrapped up the championship for Lawlor, who were presented with the Pam and Bill MacGillivray Trophy, in recognition of the HHGHA founders.

Robyn Henderson was named game MVP for Halton Hills Rad. Henderson scored twice to stake her team to a 2-0 lead. Kaitlyn Andrews, Erin Broderick and Meghann Blaney drew assists. Kaitlyn Richardson pulled Lawlor within one. Amanda Laborie and Kelly Collorossi assisted on the goal.

Intermediate

Amy DeLaFranier posted a shutout and regular season scoring champion Robin Harvey had two goals and an assist to lead First Nations Engineering Services to the Intermediate Division championship.

Harvey's first-period goal was all First Nations would need in the 5-0 victory over Dave's Service Centre. First Nations led 2-0, added another in the second period and two more in the third.

Shari Kogon, Stephanie Grave and Nicole Boccia had the other First Nations goals. Morgan Dauphinee Bell had two assists with singles going to game MVP Rachelle Somerville, Elizabeth Sinnott and Stacey Greenwood.

Anna Mansfield was the MVP for Dave's.
