Legion supports Talking Books

The Talking Books division of the Halton Hills Library received a $1,000 boost recently as Branch 120 of the Royal Canadian Legion, and the Ladies Auxilliary both donated $500 each to the cause. On hand for the presentation were (from left) Branch 120 Auxilliary president Lynn Lafleur, Halton Hills Public Library Extension Services Co-ordinator Margaret Felce and Branch 120 president Harry Archer.

Special night of Christian singing planned for April 18 at Union

BY LOIS ROONEY-GUIRIN
Norval news

Union Presbyterian will welcome SpiritSong, an ecumenical group of women singing original Christian songs on April 18. Be there at 7:30 p.m., and plan to stay for refreshments afterwards.

Childcare is provided. For details, call 877-8867, or 702-0374.

On Saturday, March 20, Norval Presbyterian was delighted to welcome Angus Sutherland, a former minister of the congregation, also a composer and musician. He was accompanied by his daughter, Bonnie, on violin, and son, Struan, on guitar.

Evan Zylstra was baptized recently at St Paul's Anglican Church in Norval. Congratulations to Evan, his proud parents Amanda and Ken Zylstra, and his godparents Sue and Duane Zylstra and Sue-Ellen Slater.

Norval Presbyterian welcomed speaker Linda Reid to a Guatemala Night on March 26. Beginning with a dinner prepared from Guatemalan recipes, the evening featured music, items of interest (weaving, pottery) and pictures from Guatemala. Ms. Reid outlined the needs of the Guatemalan people, and accepted a gift of several large boxes of school supplies to be donated to a school in a poor area of Guatemala, which she will deliver on her next trip. A really terrific time was had by all.

The next family fun night will be on Saturday, April 17, starting at 4 p.m.

A note from your correspondent. I'd really like to be able to put Norval News in on a regular basis. Please let me know if anything interesting is taking place. If you think it's interesting, chances are I will too. Call me, 702-0374, or e-mail jandls@aztec-net.com.

Army Cadets begin tagging next week

Branch 676 Royal Canadian Army Cadet Corps Georgetown will be tagging from April 15-19.

Tagging is the cadets' main fund-raising event for the year with the money being used for trips, equipment and operating costs. The 37-member cadet corps is asking residents for their support during their tagging days.

Georgetown Seniors invite all to Saturday breakfast

BY DAVE HASTINGS
Georgetown Seniors Centre news

There's an old saying: "We ain't got lots of money, but we sure has lots of fun." For "fun" in this case read "food." Recently, a crowd of 250-plus filled the Seniors Centre for our annual fund-raiser buffet and card night. I've never seen a buffet with so much food and so many choices. If anyone went away hungry it was their own fault. Fourteen tables of euchre and six of bridge rounded out the evening. The 50/50 draw winners were: first Marg Pater ($130), second Arnold Ellis ($100). It was a most successful evening.

The spring craft sale on March 20 attracted many buyers. Thirty-six tables were rented so the selection of items was great. During the day various draws were held and the winners were: Easter hams—Joyce Golden, Rose Geddes, Bob Vetro and Rose Vella. Draw ticket winners: painting, Betty Unwin (painted by the late Tom Thompson); Stage West dinner for two, Marily Pearce; Tuckers Marketplace lunch for two, Mary Peart. 50/50 draw, Rose Vella. Congratulations to all.

Don't forget the all-you-can-eat pancake and sausage breakfast on Saturday, April 10 from 8-11:30 a.m. at the centre. Tickets are $5 advance, $6 at the door, children 12 and under $2. All are welcome. Tickets at the centre Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Men's night out, March 29 saw a good turnout with bridge, euchre, pool and shuffleboard played. Jim Kennedy was convenor and says there will only be one more on April 26—returning in the fall. Good job—well done Jim!

A successful euchre evening was held on March 16 with 11 tables attending. Prizes went to: Ladies High, Gladys Inglis; Lone Hands (split) Bernice Kilpatrick, Jean Roshier, Flora McArthur, Joan Hoffman, Joanne Nurse. Consolation—Lorne Hunter. Only one table of bridge played. Lunch was served by E. Murphy, M. Stone, M. Mason and D. Hazelden. Until next time, cheerio!
