Stick-ing it to the opposition

Bill Stansel delivers a rock for the winning Acton team of Shell Lawr, Flo Weatherbie, Ruth Soder and Mary Smith, who were taking part in the recent Nick Lozinski Stick Bonspiel held at the Acton Curling Club. The spiel was organized by local curler Del Hickling, who developed the stick curling concept. Curlers from Shelburne, Fergus, Guelph, Burlington, Milton, Oakville and Acton competed.

Overtime tally sparks Raiders

Chris Ackroyd's overtime goal earned the Georgetown Minor Novice Raiders a split in the first two games of the Tri-County finals.

The Raiders jumped out to a 2-0 first-period lead on goals by Neely and Jesse Modzelewski. Matt Wittman, Blake Seaton and Ryan Swain drew assists. Caledon fought back, though, scoring early in the third and then tying the game with just 35 seconds to play in regulation.

In overtime, Ackroyd stole the puck at his own blueline, rushed down the ice and scored the winner.

Caledon took the opening game of the series 2-1. The Raiders' Ryan Oliver helped keep the game scoreless in the first but Caledon finally scored in the second and added an empty-netter with 30 seconds to play in the third. Reid

Parker's late goal cut the lead in half. Kyle Lockwood and Thomas Neely assisted.

Peewee II Raiders

Shawn Emmerton had six points, including four goals, to lead the Georgetown Beaver Lumber Peewee II Raiders to an 11-2 win over Arthur.

Pat Finn had two goals and two assists while John Moxham scored twice and set up another. Also scoring twice was Aaron Kirk. Jim Presant netted the other Raider marker. Joel Macdonald, Kyle Kennery and Adam Armonas had two assists each with Lanny Detoro and Matt Critchell picking up one apiece.

A 6-2 loss to Milton denied the Raiders a berth in the Tri-County final. Finn and Brock Grin scored for the Raiders, assisted by Emmerton and Critchell.
