Rep hockey roundup
Select Raiders clip Brampton 3-1

Seven Select Raiders Trevor Hill scored twice and Brock Hamilton had another in the Georgetown Re/Max Blue Springs Seven Select Raiders' 3-1 win over Brampton. Matt Sargent had two assists.

In other games, Chad Fellows capitalized on a breakaway for the only Raider goal in a 1-1 tie with Bolton. Georgetown played to another 1-1 deadlock against Brampton II as Sean Wittman scored.

The Raiders also pounded Orangeville 5-1. Fellows and Robert Turner each scored a pair and Dylan Hanzelka added another. Justin Reid had two assists. Fellows scored four times, all set up by Hill, in a 5-1 win over Caledon. Kody Lyons had the other goal. Sargent collected three assists. Two disallowed goals ended the Raiders' winning ways as they were edged 3-2 by Brampton II. Fellows and Hill scored for Georgetown.

Goalies Marc Drake and Marcus Rees allowed only eight goals in six games.

Atom II Raiders

A.J. Syme scored and set up two more goals as the Georgetown Atom II Raiders edged Orangeville 4-3.

Brett Maltby, Scott Buist and Alex Ingangaro had the other Raider goals. Picking up assists were Joel Greaves, Jesse Swain, Spencer Malcovich, Eric McClure and Justin Bolton.

In exhibition play, the Raiders tied Bolton 5-5. Ingangaro, Syme and Dan Rankin each had a goal and an assist. Swain and Buist also scored. Earning assists were Mike Brown and Matt Turner. The Raiders then dropped a 6-2 decision. Greaves and Syme scored with helpers going to Bolton, Buist, Rankin and Brown.

Novice Hurricanes

Curt Renaud had the only goal and Matt Mingay was solid in net as the Halton Novice Hurricanes opened the Triple A Southern Division final with a 1-1 tie against Niagara Falls. Geoff Strank and Nick Oudshoorn assisted on the goal.

The Hurricanes earned their spot in the final with a 5-2 win over Guelph. Strank and Eric Deckers each had a goal and an assist. David Dunbar, Josh Brittain and Renaud had the other Halton goals. Brad Monte, Oudshoorn, Kyle Quincey and Corey Syvret drew assists.

Minor Novice Raiders

Caledon edged the Georgetown Minor Novice Raiders 1-0 to win the Tri-County championship in four games. All four of the games were one-goal decisions, including two that went into overtime.

In a reversal of game two, Caledon took a 2-0 lead before the Raiders tied it up on goals by Byron Hackett and Jeff Pierce in the third. Chris Ackroyd assisted on both goals with singles going to Pierce and Bryce Evans.

In the final game Alex Bortolotto kept the game scoreless for two periods before Caledon poked a rebound past him early in the third. That goal held up as the winner.

Q: Why did the chicken cross the road?

A: To live longer.
By walking across the road, the chicken gained a healthier heart and lungs... and a positive attitude.
