Local bands perform Songs of Hope cancer benefit

A fund-raising concert to benefit cancer research at The Hospital for Sick Children will be held April 24.

The concert is memory of Emma Darlene Hunter, who passed away at age 2 after battling cancer.

Called Songs of Hope, this concert is for the whole family and music will be provided by four folk groups. The Warehouse Mercenaries perform original songs and folk-influenced music. Also on the bill are "guitarist extraordinaire" Brent Cooper, Classic Folk—a blend of guitar, banjo, mandolin and voices and Brown Ale, who provide traditional Celtic and Maritime folk music.

Children are welcome and each band will include some music for the kids. Light homemade snacks and refreshments will be available.

The concert will be held at St. Paul's Parish Hall, on Adamson St. in Norval, from 7:30-10 p.m. Ticket prices are adults $10, children (5-13) $5 and kids under five free.

For more information or tickets contact, Wendi or Hugh Hunter at (519) 853-1283 or e-mail: hhunter@stn.net.

AHS presents fairy tale

Acton High School will present its annual musical production in the school auditorium, April 22, 23 and 24.

This year's production of Once Upon a Mattress begins where the traditional story of the Princess and the Pea ends. This musical comedy will tell the real story which apparently differs from the legend!

Fabulous medieval costumes and a beautiful set create the perfect background for the strong cast. Some members of the troupe have previous experience on stage and many talented newcomers to school musicals have been in rehearsal since December to ensure the audience will be swept away by this charming play.

Tickets will be available at the door but buy early so you won't miss an opportunity to see this production. Presentations begin at 7:30 p.m. and ticket prices are adults $8, seniors and students $6 and children $5.
