

Scouting to plant 3,000 trees

Cubmaster Chris Arnold of 1st Limehouse talks over with Beavers and Cubs the importance of North Halton Scouting Association's 27th annual Trees for Canada tree planting this Saturday, April 24 at the property of Eighth Line, north of 22 Sideroad. Scouting members are reminded to wear their uniforms, and jackets and boots suitable to the weather. Also bring a pail, shovel and a container to water the seedlings. The scouting association will be planing 2,400 Spruce and 600 Pine trees. From left, Beavers Michael Shortt, Tris Hannah. Back, Cubmaster Chris Arnold and Cubs D.J. MacPherson, Dylan Arnold, Kyle LeBlanc, Ryan Arnold, Kevin King and Hazen Andrews.

United Way of Halton Hills

United Way of Halton Hills, a volunteer organization that is dedicated to providing leadership in the raising and responsible allocation of funds to meet human needs and improve social conditions in a caring community, requires a visionary leader.

As Executive Director you will report to a highly committed Board of Directors, working with them to develop goals, strategies and policies consistent with the organization's mission.

We require a very special person who is a high energy leader with a proven track record in volunteer management. The candidate will bring the rigor of a business approach, combined with the sensitivity of getting things done in a volunteer milieu. The ability to manage financial affairs is required. A working knowledge of Simply Accounting and Microsoft Office is preferred.

This is a temporary position with the possibility of permanent employment.
