Shot youth faces charges

A Halton Police investigation has revealed the Halton Hills youth who was shot in the shoulder during an alleged attempted robbery at Rotary Park in Milton last month accidentally discharged the gun himself.

As a result, police have charged the 17-year-old male with public mischief and possession of an unregistered restricted weapon.

Detective Sgt. Jackie Gordon said with the co-operation of the alleged victim, a .25 calibre handgun police were looking for in connection with the incident was found buried in another Milton park.

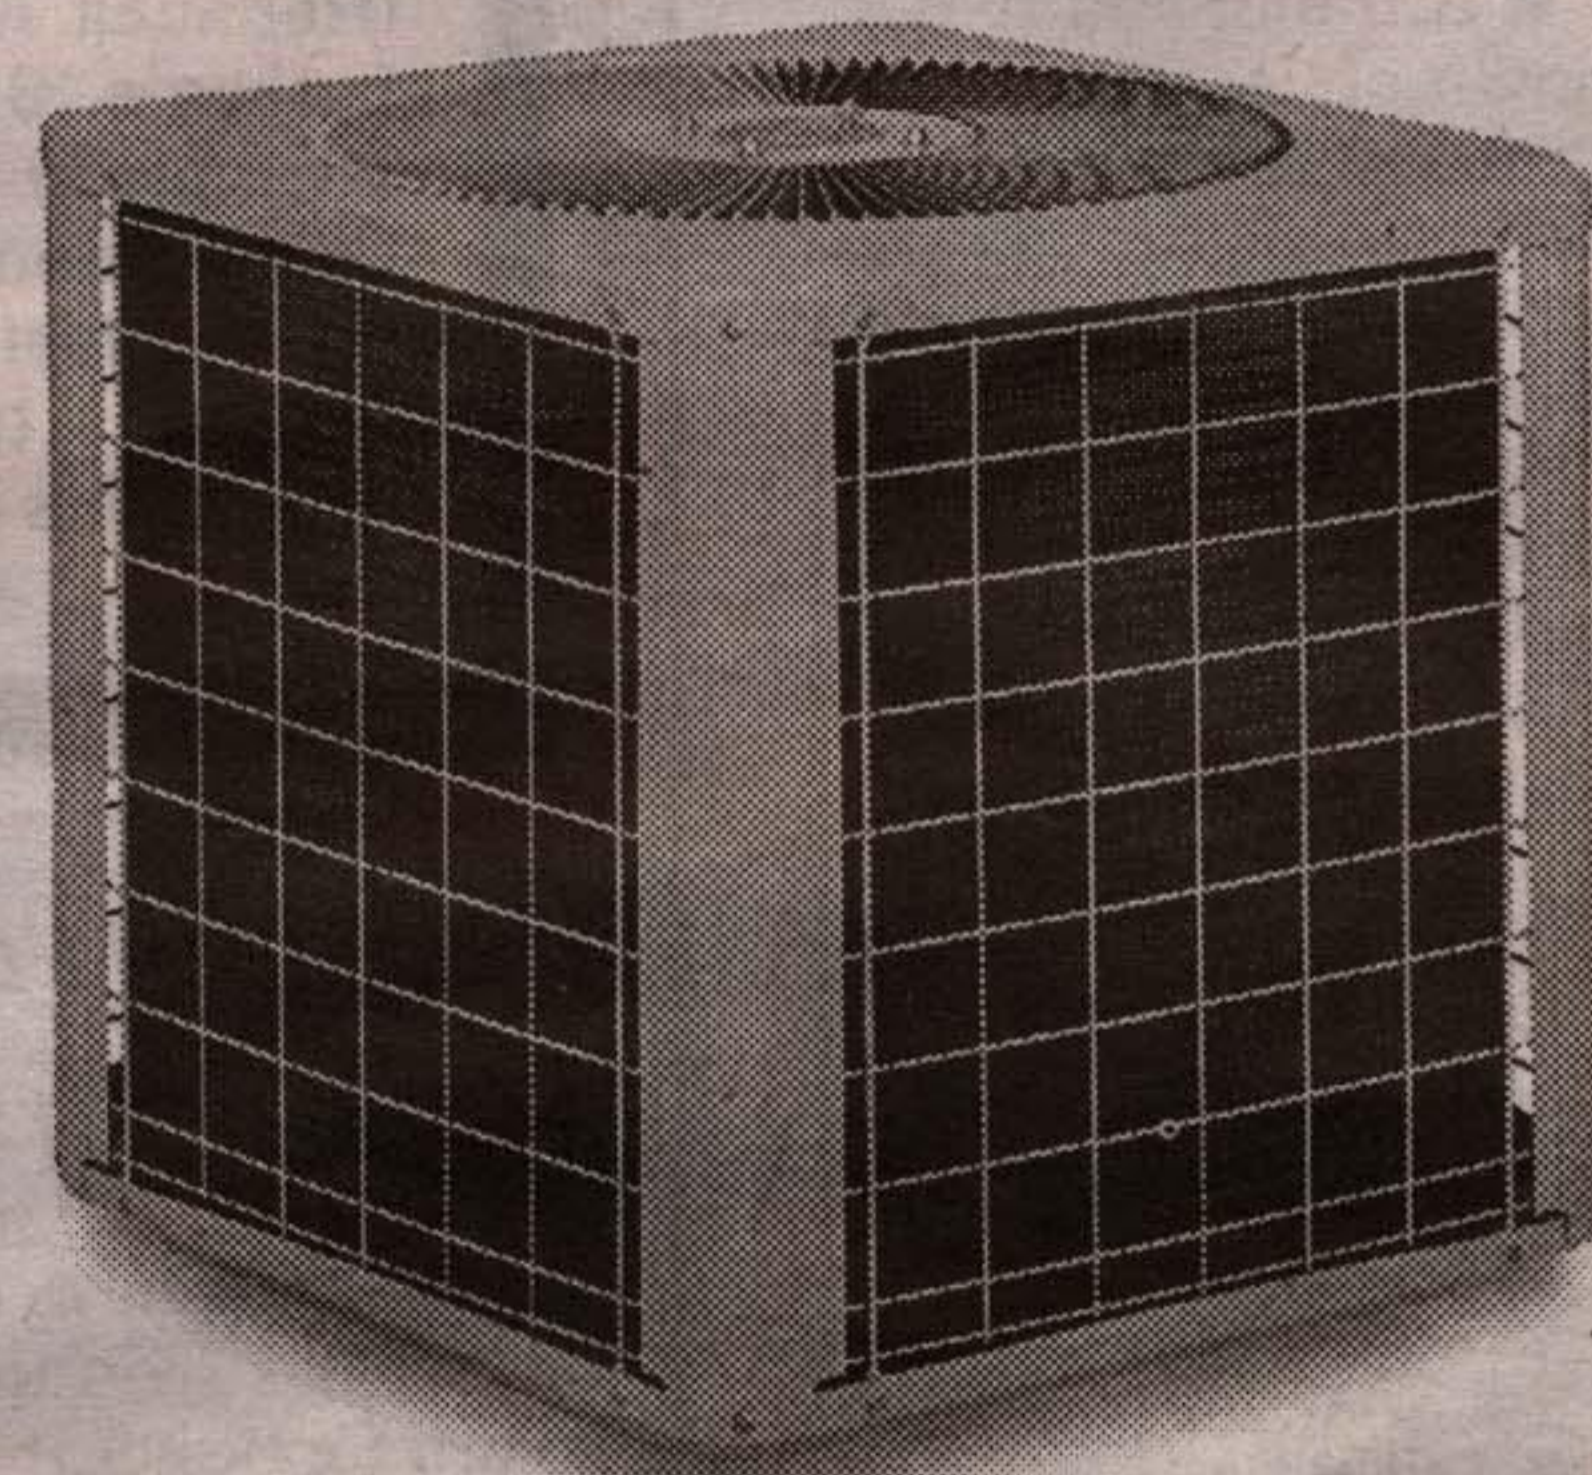

"The shooting incident raised a lot of public concern that a quiet bedroom community like Milton could be an area where such a violent act could be committed," said Gordon. "I was pleased and relieved to learn this, in fact, was not as it had appeared."

Gordon said she is relieved the gun, which she said had been purchased from another youth, was recovered.
