Listen to the "Peepers", watch the spring flowers, see the horses frolicking or watch and catch the wildlife in the pond. Go for a walk in the woods, enjoy the early morning sun on your deck and relax in the hot tub in the evening. If the air is cool light a fire and cozy up with a good book. Entertain your family and friends casually in the rec room with it's own wet bar, or formally in the large living room/dining room combination with lots of windows overlooking the countryside. This is life in the country, available at $314,900. Martha Summers. STE-99
