Stargazing guides

5th Georgetown East Guides (from left) Alison Kovacs, Stacy Morrow and Bailey Downton were star-struck as Scouter Peter Moss taught astronomy to their unit recently. It was part of a weekend camp at Camp Ma Kee Wa. Not only did the girls explore the night sky by telescope, they also put into practice their compass and orienteering skills.

Acton Seniors seek help

The new crafts and gifts are coming in for our fund-raiser in June. We still haven't put a name to it yet, but we are working on it. It depends on the donations we receive. Don't forget the deadline is May 10 for donations. Thanks for your support.

Betty and Barb have a trip, May 12, to Niagara for the blossom tour. We have lunch on our own at Betty's in Chippewa, the Butterfly Conservatory and the Rossi Glass Outlet are planned on this trip. We leave at 9:30 a.m. and return about 6 p.m. Just phone the centre at 853-5951.

We are working on our next newsletter and it will be out by the end of the month. Al is trying to keep us all on our toes and that is a big job. Some wait until the last minute to get our reports in. Human nature, I guess.

Mae Milton, Isobel McDonald, Marg Stronziwilk, Jay Noonan and Edna Nellis had mooners on Thursday afternoon bridge.

On May 11, we are having an evening bingo at 7 p.m. at the centre. For members only.

Georgetown Seniors

Auction raises $2,200

Lots of items and three busy auctioneers kept a good crowd buying at the Georgetown and District Seniors Centre's charity auction sale on April 24. Thanks to the efforts of auctioneers Jack Handy, Ken Nurse, Ted Murphy and their helpers, $2,212.36 was raised. A special thanks to all who donated items to the event.

A successful euchre evening was held on April 20 with Jack and Audrey Dilks hosting. There were 56 players and the prize winners were: Ladies high, Pat Caruso; lone hands, Gladys Inglis, Josie Tost; men's high, Russ Miller; consolation, Norma Sandelands. There were four tables of bridge as well. Marilyn Mason and Eleanor Murphy served lunch.

Casino Rama trips are still attracting excellent crowds. In April, 93 fortune seekers filled two buses. We didn't hear of any big winners. Next trip is Monday, May 31. Book early if you plan to attend. Cost is $5 for members and $10 for non-members.

Thirty-three ladies from the centre's craft club recently attended the Creative Sewing and Needlework Festival at the National Trade Centre in Toronto. From all reports it was a very informative but tiring day (lots of walking).

Grant Greenaway still has seats available for the tour of the Royal Botanical Gardens and Andres Wines on May 12. Bus leaves the centre at 9 a.m., returning about 6 p.m. Cost is $44 per person and includes tour and lunch. For more information call Grant at 877-6444.

A big day at the seniors centre is Tuesday, May 18 with a 12:30 p.m. luncheon followed by the annual general meeting. It's your centre and your input is needed so plan to attend. Call 877-6444 by Monday prior if you would like a ride.

Cheerio, until next time.

Bannockburn W.I. elects executive

The ladies of Bannockburn Women's Institute met at the home of Norine Van Leeuwen for their March meeting. Our speaker for the evening was Frances McRreadie, an RCMP officer who gave a very interesting talk on young offenders, immigration and many more aspects of the law.

Linda Cairns was hostess for the April annual meeting. Election of officers were as follows: President, Linda Cairns; secretary-treasurer, Gerda Potzel; District director, Anne Hollis; alternate DD, Ina Peterson; program co-ordinators, Anne Hollis and Young-sil Frankland; Tweedsmuir History, Gerda Potzel; card convener, Anne Hollis.

Our next meeting will be May 12 at 7:30 p.m. See you there.
