

HHCSI offers four family programs

Halton Hills Community Support and Information (HHCSI) offers a variety of family resource programs throughout the community. These programs provide support and information to parents and child care providers during the preschool years.

Local groups are:

- Georgetown Parent-Child Centre, located at 89 Mountainview Rd. S., Georgetown, offers a drop-in program, resource library, parenting education programs, caregiver resources and a parent "Warmline". For more information call 873-2960.
- Glen Williams Drop-in Program, located at St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams runs on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30-11 a.m. For information call 873-2960.
- Acton Parent-Child Centre, located at 85 Wallace Street, Acton is open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and offers a drop-in program, resource library, toy lending library, caregiver theme kits and workshops. For more information call the centre at 853-2574.

• The Acton Children's Corner offers parenting education, drop-in program, support and referral services. The Children's Corner is located at 114 Mill Street East, Acton (Salvation Army church basement) and is open Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9:30-11:30 a.m.

For information about these and any other programs or services, call HHCSI at 873-6502 (Georgetown) or 853-3310 (Acton).
