

Going once, going twice... sold!

The Glen Williams Town Hall recently held a silent auction to raise money for year 2000 projects and among the prize auction items was a 1928 bottle of French wine that was valued at $1,500. Holding the wine is town hall chair Jack Whitteker (left) while committee member Karl Stenson models one of the 2000 Glen Williams t-shirts that were for sale as well as a carved loon.

Georgetown Kinsmen were celebrities for a night recently as they took to the small screen at Cableworks 14 to broadcast their 15th annual TV auction. President Dan Breznicar and Cableworks' Tina Teggert took the first shift describing the items on the auction block and updating the viewers on their bids.

Vehicles stolen in Acton

A truck, van and a snowmobile were stolen from Acton Terminal Warehouse on Hwy. 7 in Acton sometime over the weekend.

Stolen were a 1989 GMC pickup truck valued at $2,500, a 1992 Dodge van valued at $3,000 and a 1987 Yamaha snowmobile valued at $2,500. The van and truck were parked on the lot and the snowmobile was in a shed on the property.

Halton Police are investigating.

A VCR, computer equipment and cash, totaling $3,000 were taken from a Corey Circle during a break-in Thursday. Entry was gained through a basement window.

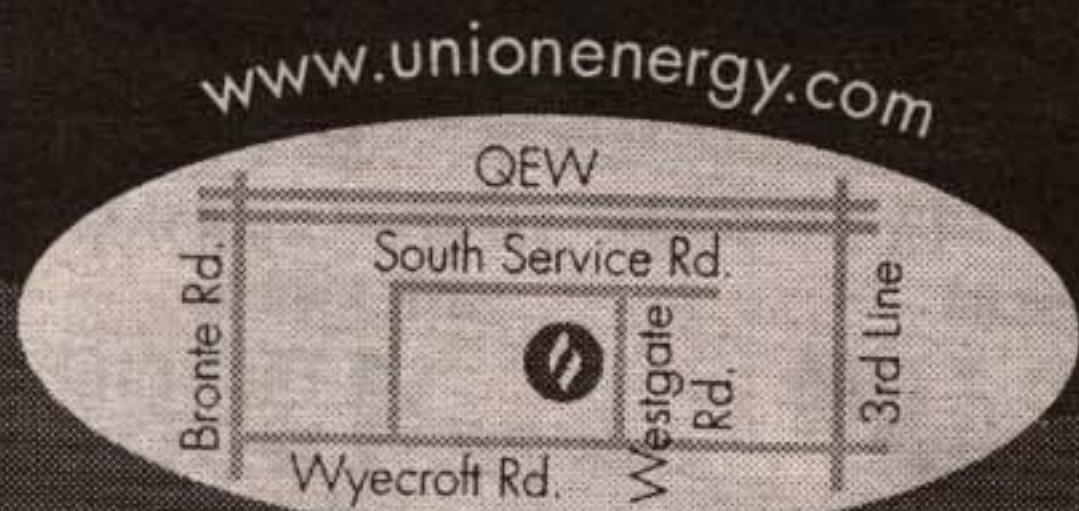

Larry's got some ideas on how to lower temperatures this summer.
