Win third straight

Wolfpack squad is on a roll

The Georgetown Wolfpack's first season in town is shaping up to be a howling success.

The Wolfpack won their third straight game by downing the Kitchener Roller Rats 11-6 in Wednesday's Major Jr. A Roller Hockey League game.

"We're really jelling," said Kyle Prospero, who had two goals and two assists. "Most of us have played together before and it's working out for us."

Prospero, who was acquired by Georgetown in an off-season trade with Brampton, played with many of his Wolfpack teammates on the St. Thomas Aquinas Cardinals high school team. Among the members of that team was Darryl Tullio, who scored four times in Wednesday's win.

Graham McCulloch had a goal and two assists for Georgetown. Mark Stzrodas, Frank Tullio, Jason Beaumont and Mike Farrugia had the other goals.

Wolfpack coach Dave Van Kooten said he is not surprised by the team's quick start.

"They're the defending champs and all the core guys are back," he said. "Plus we've got two good goalies who are making the stops and letting us come back up the floor quickly."

Former Bramalea Blues netminder Mike Bednarz earned his second win of the season. He allowed only two even-strength goals in the game.

One thing Van Kooten would like the team to improve on is its discipline. He said the team took too many penalties, which led to three Kitchener power-play goals.

The Wolfpack will face their biggest test on Saturday when they play the Niagara Panthers, the team they beat to win the Walter Gretzky Cup last season.

"It will be a good measuring stick to see where we stand in the league," Van Kooten said.

The Wolfpack will host the second game of the home-and-home series Friday, May 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the Alcott Arena.

PACK NOTES: Darryl Tullio, Stzrodas and McCulloch have scored in each game....Tullio leads the team with eight goals and 14 points....Tullio and Farrugia scored goals three seconds apart in the second quarter....Kitchener's Adam Nittel was held to one assist.

Soccer kick off

The Georgetown Soccer Club will kick off the 1999 season at the Croatian Centre on Winston Churchill Blvd.

A total of 85 games will get the season rolling. Games begin at 8 a.m. and continue until 5:30 p.m. In addition to the games, there will be a number of soccer related activities for players to enjoy.

Tops in tennis

Kelly Holmes and Mark Faseruk took the singles titles at the Acton High School Tennis Tournament.

Holmes and Faseruk will move on to the Halton Secondary School Athletic Association tournament along with the other winners.

Holmes and Faseruk also took the doubles titles. Faseruk teamed up with Fraser Hewitt to win the senior men's doubles while Holmes and Ruth Eddolls won the senior ladies doubles. Eddolls was also a double winner as she teamed up with J.P. Dutoit to win the mixed doubles.

The junior men's doubles was won by Adam Ahearn and Graham McClure while Rob Turpin won the junior men's singles title.

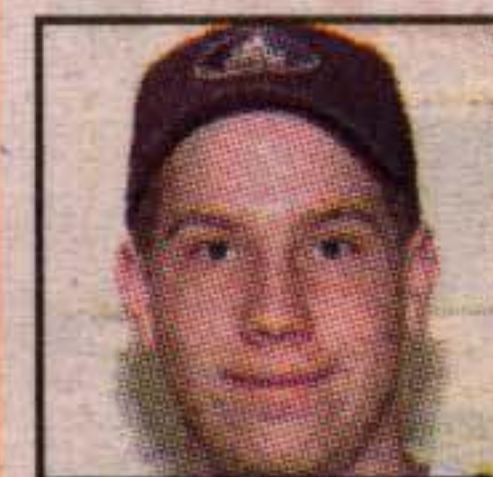

Athletes of the Week

KYLE HALL

SHARI KOGON

MARK FASERUK

KELLY HOLMES

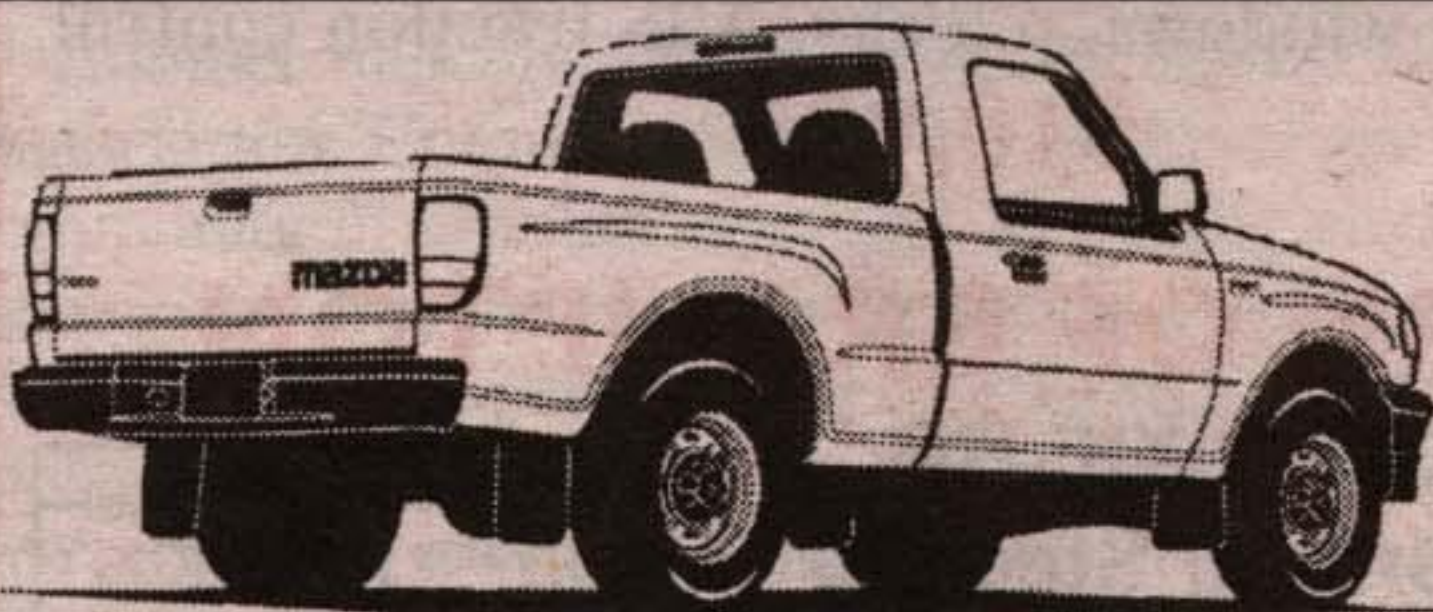

The Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Kyle Hall and Shari Kogon.

Hall, a fly half on the midget Rebels rugby team, was selected for scoring the only try in a game against Notre Dame, in which GDHS won 5-0.

Kogon, a centre defence on the junior Rebels soccer team, was chosen for scoring the tying goal against Assumption. Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Mark Faseruk and Kelly Holmes.

Both were selected for their performance at the annual Acton High School tennis tournament in which both won the singles titles of the tournament.
