Farewell concert of Dutch choir

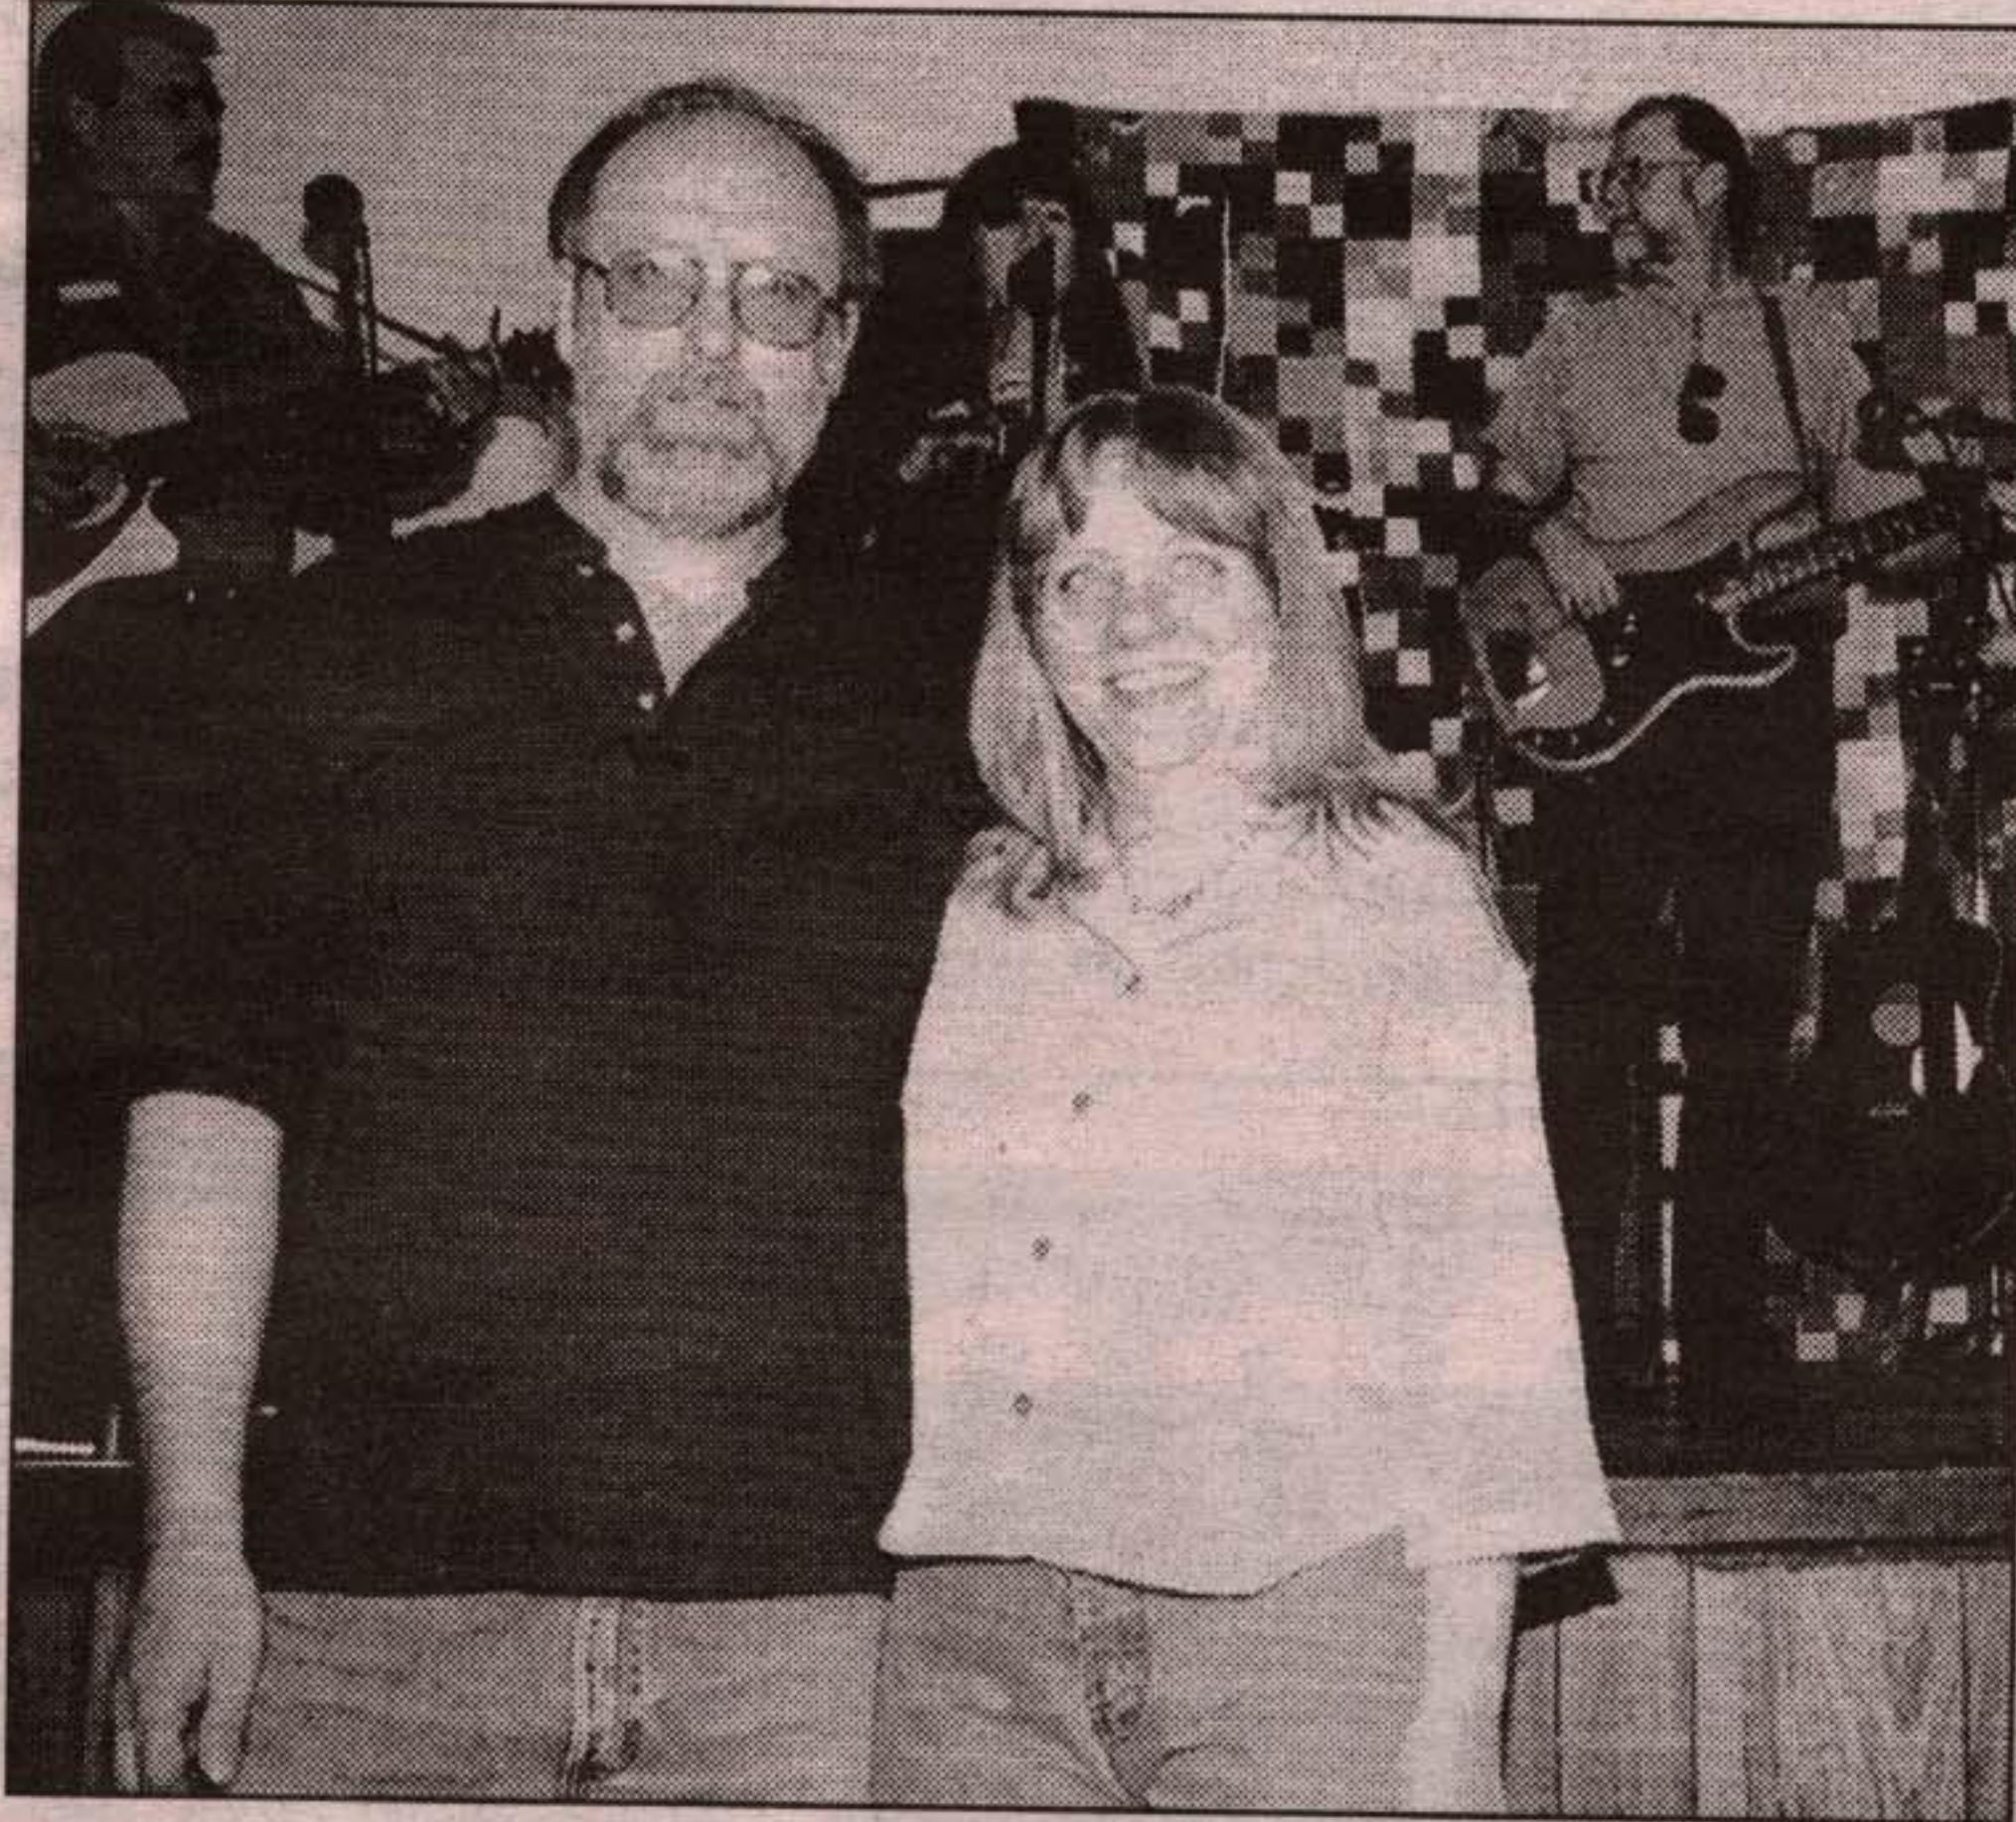

Georgetown will host the farewell concert of the Dutch choir, Praise Him, on May 19.

The Christian-mixed choir will perform with the Liberation Choir from Brampton. Combined there will be about 300 choristers.

Accompanist will be Martin Mans, also from the Netherlands. He is one of Holland's most popular organists and is well known in Europe, Australia and Canada. The audience will get ample opportunity to sing along.

The concert starts at 7:30 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Arena in Georgetown.

Admission is $10 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under. Tickets are available at the door only.

Songs concert gives hope

Wendi and Hugh Hunter enjoy the music played by the Warehouse Mercenaries at the recent Songs of Hope charity benefit. The couple organized the event in memory of their late daughter Emma. Funds raised will be directed to cancer research through the Hospital for Sick Children Foundation.

Kim Debruyne opens new show at Williams Mill

Oil paintings and collagraph prints by artist Kim Debruyne will be unveiled in an exhibition at the Williams Mill Gallery starting next week.

Debruyne's show opens Wednesday, May 19 and runs until June 27. The official opening is Sunday, May 23 from 2-4 p.m.

Debruyne is a mixed media artist, whose recent works include colorful figurative and abstract landscape paintings, and uniquely textured and lined collagraph prints.

She works in Studio 12 at the Williams Mill. The studio is open to the public on Saturdays from noon to 5 p.m. During the week it is open as a working studio; to schedule a meeting date, call 853-0967.

The Williams Mill Gallery and Creative Arts Studios is located at 515 Main Street in Glen Williams. Gallery hours are Wednesday through Sunday, noon to 5 p.m. For more information, call 873-8203 or visit www.williamsmill.com.
