United Way searches for volunteers

Spring has sprung, and it is time when all plant life starts growing again. It is also a time when the United Way in Halton Hills will spring to action by creating awareness of what this organization does for local residents.

United Way is committed to improving the quality of life for all the people in Halton Hills by raising and investing money in services and programs that help meet human needs in the community.

There are 19 agencies that provide 53 programs to the Halton Hills community. More than 13,000 people are helped by these programs— that's more than one in three people.

These agencies are funded or partially funded by United Way: The Canadian Red Cross Society, Big Brother Association, Big Sister Association, Canadian Mental Health Association, Canadian National Institute for the Blind, Community Living, Community Resources Services, Grace House Inc., Halton Centre for Childhood Sexual Abuse, Halton Family Services, Halton Helping Hands, Halton Hills Community Support and Information, Halton Recovery House, Multiple Sclerosis Society, North Halton Distress and Information Centre, North Halton Literacy Guild, North Halton YMCA, Victorian Order of Nurses.

If you feel the calling to help this organization by volunteering your time or would like to get more information about the United Way in your community, call Chris Miller, campaign chair west, at 853-1007 or David Ashbee, campaign chair east, 877-5206.
