Three Acton students honoured

The best and brightest students and staff that the Halton Board of Education has to offer were honoured at an annual Student Awards of Excellence on Thursday. Staff at each school was asked to nominate a student whose academic and extra-curricular achievements are truly outstanding.

The ceremony is always a thrill for Halton Board chair Ethel Gardiner, who spent almost two decades teaching at Acton's Robert Little school.

"This is my favorite night of the whole school year," Gardiner said before the ceremony.

"It gives everyone a chance to focus on what is really important and that, of course, it is the students in the system. The exciting part is that those single people that are there from each school in Halton represent hundreds and hundreds of kids in our system who strive for excellence."

The Acton students honoured include:

- Matthew Hanselman, 11, the Grade 5 student selected from Robert Little school, is described as "helpful, trusted and a good role model for younger students."

- MSB student Joe Brunelle, 14, played volleyball and basketball for the Mustangs, shows strong leadership skills and maintains excellent marks.

- OAC student Matt Schiller, 18, was an easy pick for school staff. He's a member of the school concert and jazz bands, is on the student council and volunteers his time as a Sunday school teacher at Trinity United Church.
