New members elected to seniors centre board

The big event of the month to date at the Georgetown and District Seniors Centre was the annual meeting held at the centre on May 18. After a delicious luncheon prepared by Siena Van Hoekelen's group, the meeting was called to order by President Rein Pater. Copies of the annual report, including all committee reports, were distributed to the members present; all reports were approved. The success of the seniors centre program is due in large part to all of the volunteers who gave their time and talent, and to Adriana Lawless, our tireless centre coordinator.

New members elected to the board were Ed Cachia, Hugh Diamond, Marian Faulkner and Marilyn Mason. Re-elected were Sheila Ward and treasurer Dwayne Frerichs. Retiring members were Maurice Herbert, Roland Lobb and Ruth Michasiw.

A couple of points of interest arising at the meeting were: the possibility of keeping the centre open week-ends (left to board decision) and raising the dues from $12 to $15 effective January 1, 2000. With the additional space and the likelihood of a rent increase this was felt necessary. Call the centre at 877-6444 if you would like a copy of the report.

The seniors games are underway and we have a few results and non-results. In darts, the team of Jim Taylor and Don Peggie went to an extra game before coming second to Oakville. Acton captured third place. The bowling team of Rita Rudiger, Cecelia Reid, Bert Forbes, Jim Handy and Flo Carswell came second to the Oakville team. Carpet bowling held at the seniors centre in Oakville turned into a fiasco when games were suspended so that line dancing and square dancing could use the hall. It appears no winner was declared but at the time two Georgetown teams were tied for first place.

Next Casino Rama trip is May 31 so book early, if you plan to go.

We were saddened to hear of the sudden passing of Mary Golden recently. A memorial service was held for her on Wednesday. Sincere sympathy goes from us at the centre to her family.

Until next time, cheerio.

Acton seniors' euchre nights are well attended

Once again our monthly euchre was well attended. Winners were high lady, Bernice Kilpatrick; second lady, Stella Brunelle; high man, Henry Wedge; second man, Robert Snyder; lone hands, Marg Stronziwilk; low, Harold Harris. Our last evening euchre of this season is Wednesday, June 2 at 7:30. Cost is $2; includes a light lunch.

We had three teams of two go down to Oakville for the dart tournament and Bill Rowley and Frank Thompson came home with bronze. Congratulations.

We have a trip to Casino Rama on Wednesday, May 26. We leave at 9 a.m. and return at 6 p.m. The price is $7 and includes lunch. Bread pudding anyone?

Our first evening bingo for members only was successful. We now have a paid-up membership of 213.
