

Annual Norval Riverfest attracted 1,500 visitors

The village of Norval was the place to be on Saturday, May 15 for the first annual Riverfest. Traffic was quite slow through the village as hundreds of people thronged the streets, and parking was at a premium. Attendance was about 1,500.

Excellent progress is being made on the Millennium Cookbook project, but your help is still needed. If you haven't already received a flyer or visit from the Norval Community Association, you can count on hearing from them soon. The committee would like to have all recipes collected and names correctly recorded by May 31. If this is the first you've heard, please call Brenda Bryce at 877-1590. If you live outside of Norval, but would like to be included, please call the number above.

Norval United Church's annual chicken barbecue will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at Huttonville Public School (Embleton Rd. at Mississauga Rd.) Doors open at 4 p.m. and dinner, including chicken, salads, roll and tea or coffee, will be served until 8 p.m. Advance tickets are $8 for an adult (door price is $8.50), $5.50, child. Call 877-0963 or 877-6122.

It's time to start thinking about Vacation Bible School. Registration is now open for Norval Presbyterian's Bible School, running from July 26-30. For information or to register, please call 877-8867.
