Mustangs net tie

The Georgetown Mustangs quarter-final finish at the USA Cup seems to have revitalized the team.

Prior to the tournament the team had just one tie in 10 games. Since returning from the Minneapolis tournament, the team has a win and a tie in its last three games. Their latest game ended in a 1-1 tie with North Mississauga.

The Mustangs' attack, led by Kathleen Moffett, Lisa Felice and Jacquie Bajic, dominated the second half and when Mississauga did get scoring chances, Mustang keeper Heather Stephens was there to stop them. Defender Sheena Forbes also played well in turning back opponents' scoring attempts.

It was the Mustangs' leading scorer, Nav Dhillon, who scored the equalizer with a shot from 25 yards out. Krista Nicholl's well-timed jump caused the Mississauga keeper to misjudge the dipping shot.
