Police seek three men in gas station robbery

Halton Police are looking for three men in connection with a robbery at the Shell station at Trafalgar Rd. and Steeles Ave. in Hornby Wednesday night.

Police say at about 11:45 p.m. three men entered the station. One stood by the door, while the two others approached the counter. One of the men demanded money while the other grabbed cigarettes from behind the counter.

The store manager, a Toronto man, handed over the money in the till. While no gun was seen, he believed the man who demanded the cash had one.

The bandits fled the station with a small quantity of cash and cigarettes in an older model white van, possibly a Chrysler, with imitation wood paneling on the sides.

Police searched the area and neighboring police services were contacted but the van wasn't found.

Police are looking for a white man, about 5'9", in his 20s, with long, light brown hair and a medium build. The second suspect is described as white, in his early 20s, 5'8", with brown hair in a ponytail. He was wearing baggy pants. The third man is described as black, 5'5", with a small build. All three men were wearing bandanas over their faces.

Anyone with information should call police at 878-5511 ext. 2416.

Break-ins keep cops busy

Cash, liquor, jewelry and electronic equipment valued at $25,000 were taken from a home on the Tenth Line south of 22 Sideroad during a break and enter Tuesday. Entry was gained through an unlocked rear door.

Police are also investigating a break and enter at McDonald's Restaurant that occurred Wednesday morning. Entry was gained through the drive-thru window. The safe was opened and a small quantity of cash was taken.
