Local artists unveil work at studio open house Saturday

Local artist Valerie Nichol will open her studio to the public to display paintings and sculptures.

The one-day show, on Saturday, Sept. 11, will also include work by Susan Lapp-McNally and etchings by Nichol's husband, Robert Daigneault, a composer and artist.

The threesome, who are also professional musicians, released a CD this year, called Ghosts of Summer's Passing. It's being distributed to international broadcasters by the Socan Foundation and is marketed by the Canadian Music Centre.

The music was composed by Daigneault with Lapp-McNally on the flute and Nichol playing the piano.

The CD is available at The Olde Book Store in Acton and will also be on sale at the studio open house.

Nichol and Daigneault teach piano and composition in Acton at the Acton Music Studio. Nichol and Lapp-McNally are known as the Canadian Duo focusing on promoting Canadian flute and piano music.

Nichol has performed in concert halls and art galleries across Canada and has often combined her paintings with a keyboard performance.

"Music and art are closely connected for me," she says in a press

Flautist Susan Lapp-McNally and pianist Valerie Nichol, who have recently released a CD, will also display their artwork on Saturday.

release. "Rhythm, color and texture are interwoven to express the reality of one's inner world."

The open house will be held at 115 Bower St. in Acton between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.
