

Acton High School students to pray Sept. 15

Acton High School (AHS) students will be participating in a worldwide student-led prayer event, See You At The Pole, on Wednesday, Sept. 15.

The youths will gather at the school's flag pole at 7 a.m. and pray for 15-30 minutes about school, community and national concerns. Janet de Blauw and Amanda Cunneyworth, two AHS students who attend Acton Baptist Church, will be leading this event—no adults will be allowed at the pole during the student prayer meeting. While adults are asked to pray, they will meet across the street.

See You At The Pole is a student initiative that began in Texas in the early 1990s and has spread to all 50 states and more than 20 countries. This year's theme is For Such a Time as This, referring to Esther 4:14—Esther, the Jewish Queen helped save her people from a Persian King in 473 BC. Students relate the threats in that time to spiritual dangers facing students and the world today.
