Fall activities revving up in Glen Williams

The pace of life is speeding back up in the Glen—the kids have returned to school, and to many other activities. Scouting and Guiding are having registration on September 13 at 7 p.m. in the gym at Glen Williams Public School. Drop by to enroll the kids and for information on these great groups. Leaders are still needed so volunteers would be especially welcome.

For those with younger kids, the Georgetown Parent Child Centre operates a satellite group in the church hall at St. Alban's. Joanne will be returning every Tuesday and Thursday morning, 9:30-11 a.m. and leading the kids in play, crafts and songs. Please join the group starting on September 16 and meet other parents and caregivers. For more information call 873-2960.

Both our local churches are getting busy as well. St. John's now has a new minister, Reverend Jim Ball, who will be welcomed in a covenanting service at St. John's in Georgetown at 11 a.m. on Sept. 26. Sunday School registration will be Sept. 12.

At St. Alban's, the search for a new rector continues. In the meantime, Archdeacon Richard Berryman has joined as interim minister. Richard is just getting to know the congregation, so please let him know through the church office if there is someone who needs visiting. Sunday School will get started Sept. 19 at the 10:30 a.m. service and Tony Lolic (877-4701) can be contacted if you have time or talent to contribute.

Remember that this column is to serve all groups in the Glen who have news to share. Please give me a call at 702-8275 and I'd be happy to include you.

Norval celebrates anniversaries

Congratulations to Alma and Jim Doane, who celebrated 50 years of marriage on August 27. A celebration was held on August 28 to mark this momentous occasion.

Forty year anniversaries were celebrated on August 28 by Jamie and Marlene Cunningham at Norval Presbyterian Church and Wilmer and Anne Little at the Peel Regional Police Association. Congratulations on a tremendous achievement.

Another anniversary of note is Paul and Elizabeth Ivany of Norval United Church, who celebrated 15 years of marital bliss on August 31. Congratulations.

Norval United Church's Vacation Bible School, was held from August 23 to 27. Over 100 youngsters attended the week held using two tents and every available centimeter of floor space in Norval United. The program for the week was Jungle Journey—Exploring God's Promises. A terrific time was had by all who participated.

The Millennium Cookbook will be arriving soon! At $14.95 a copy, this hefty (nearly 200 page) cookbook is a bargain with great photos and terrific recipes. Don't be disappointed! Call Brenda Bryce today at 877-1590 to reserve your copy. Quantities are extremely limited.

Get your tickets now for the Norval United Church Fantasy Wedding Dinner and Auction, to be held on October 23. Tickets are $25, and available from Beth Laidlaw at 455-8519.

Let me know the things that are happening in Norval! Call 702-0374 or e-mail me at jandls@aztec-net.com.

Ballinafad man named Erin Senior of the Year

Just call him the Town of Erin Senior Citizen of the Year. On Thursday, Sept. 2, Jim Bailey of Ballinafad was given this honor by a special presentation held at the Erin Municipal Office. Congratulations Jim!

Rally Sunday at the Ballinafad United Church is happening on Sunday, Sept. 12, beginning at 11 a.m. Everyone is welcome, as there will be a barbecue after the service. Sunday School sign-up is also on this day.

Keep Friday, Sept. 24 clear. You won't want to miss the music night happening at the Ballinafad Community Centre, starting at 8 p.m. There will be Scottish, square, line and country dancing, along with Marion's Country Band. Admission is just $5 per person or $15 per family. What a fun night for the family, plus a neat opportunity for the younger ones to learn how to dance!

Story Time is starting up at the United Church on Monday mornings, 10 a.m. A great time for structured activity for children, and a pleasant way for adults to get together. There is no charge. Folks just take turns bringing the snacks. Also happening at the United Church is a Family Games Night on Friday, Sept. 17 at 7:15 p.m. Bring along your favorite board game and have a blast. There is no charge and refreshments will be provided.

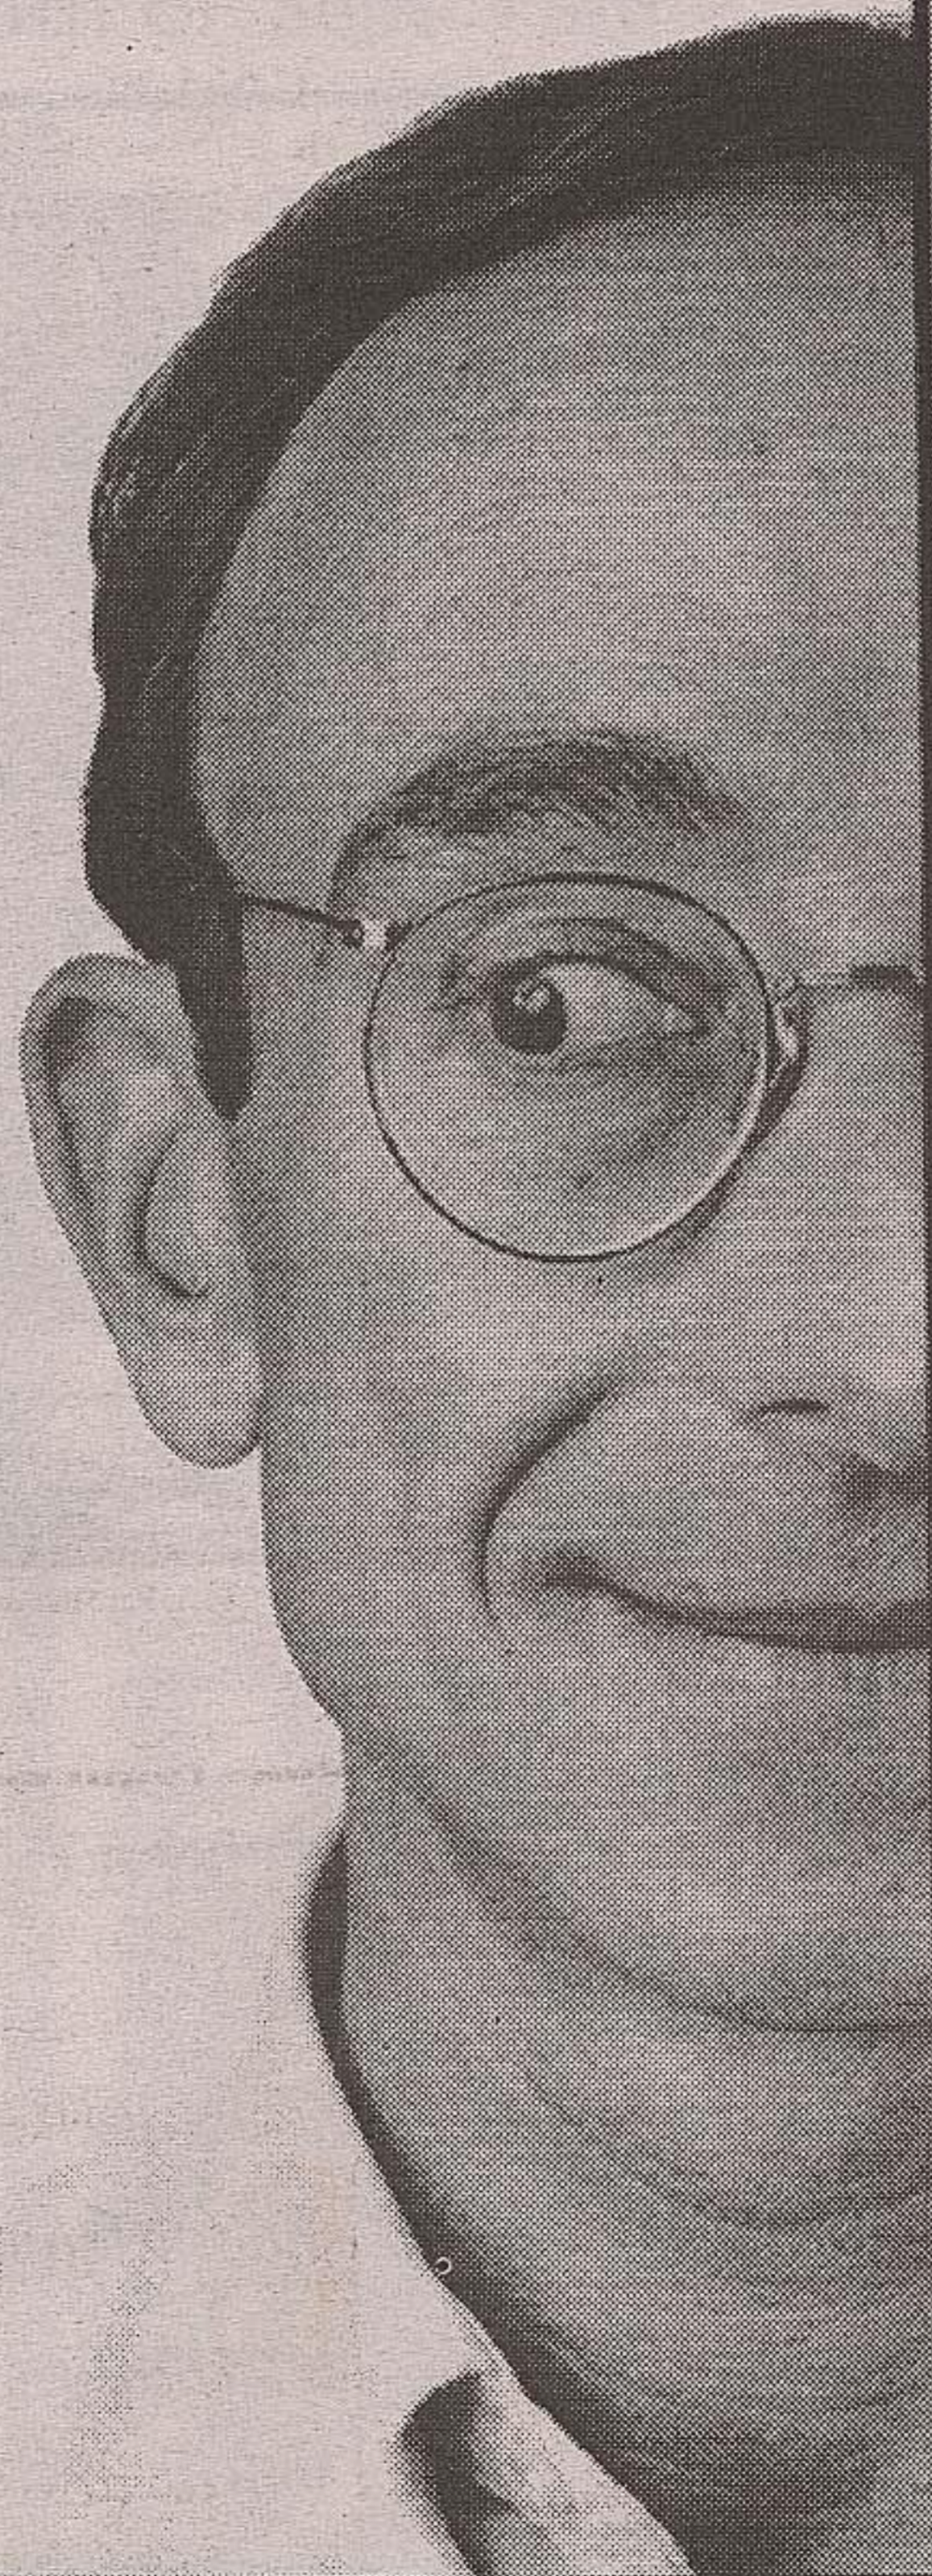

The euchre held on Sept. 2 had eight tables of players. Edna Aldwell came away with first prize with her 104 points. Second place went to Joe Primus with 102. It was 100 points that earned Marlene Haskins third. Elsie Swann finished up as low score with 54 points. Robert Snyder had six lone hands, which snagged him that prize. Everyone is welcome to come out to the next euchre on Thursday, Sept. 16, 7:30 p.m. Admission is $3 and includes refreshments.

Many thanks to the Machine Knitter's Haven Seminar for sponsoring the July/August Ballinafad Newsletter. This seminar will be held Oct. 22-23 in Erin. For more information call Sherry Kocher, 877-2944. Read up on all the upcoming activities in the newsletter.
