

A feast in the fields

David Wolfman, left, and Bryon Davidson of Vegetable Kingdom serve up a sample of their zuni stew, a vegetarian version of a Native American venison stew, during the 11th annual Feast of Fields held Sunday at Scotsdale Farm. The event is sponsored by Advocates for Organic Agriculture and this year was a major fund-raiser for Citizens for Renewable Energy, a promoter of solar and wind energy.

Coin changer stolen from restaurant

A Panasonic coin changer was stolen from McDonald's restaurant on Guelph St. sometime Wednesday night or Thursday morning. The drive-thru window in the restaurant had been forced open. The coin changer, and the change in it, are valued at about $3,000. About $60 in change was recovered in the parking lot.

Halton Police recovered a small quantity of marijuana packaged in several bags at the Georgetown Fall Fair Saturday night.

Daniel Buligan, 19, of Southwinds Dr., Ballinafad was charged with possession of a controlled substance for the purpose of trafficking. Also charged with possession of a controlled substance was Charles Richards, 19, of Dayfoot Dr., Georgetown.

Both men are to be court on November 8.
