

Acton Home Hardware celebrates

Acton Home Hardware officially opened Friday morning as owners Val and Bill Manes (centre) received a gold saw from Home Hardware vice-president Information Service and Dealer Development Terry Davis (right) and Peter Buhrow, area manager for Central Western Ontario. The store featured some great deals for the opening and served cake and refreshments to customers.

Lace up your shoes for Terry Fox runs this Sunday, Sept. 19

Terry Fox Runs will be held in Acton and Georgetown Sept. 19.

The Acton run will be held at Acton High School, starting at 8 a.m. and participants can run, walk or ride their bikes anytime before 3 p.m.

Georgetown's run will be held at Georgetown South Community Park beginning at 9:30 a.m. and continues until 2 p.m.

Pledge forms are available at banks, variety stores, credit unions and other locations.

For those who want to participate but don't want to collect pledges, simply make a donation at the run.

Father and daughter exhibit at the Gallery

Kira Pattison, age 11, will join her father, Doug, in her public exhibition of her paintings at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre Gallery.

A meet-the-artists reception will be held this Friday, Sept. 17, 7-8:30 p.m. with the show, Yours to Discover, on now until Sept. 26.

Kira Pattison is a student at Halton Waldorf School in Campbellville. She has always exhibited a talent and passion for drawing and painting and has been an enthusiast participant in local fall fairs and craft competitions with many first place ribbons.

Joining Kira, will be dad Doug, who is returning to public showing after a 14-year hiatus. He is a graduate of the Ontario College of Art, Banff School of Fine Arts and Toronto School of Art.

Pattison began actively painting at age 12 and held his first one-man art exhibit at age 13 in Port Credit, featuring more than 50 works of art.

After many years of apprenticeship through public shows, Pattison was represented by Gallery Moos in Toronto, followed by an one-man show in Bern, Switzerland, and a feature exhibit in the Art Gallery of Hamilton.

Pattison says he's thrilled to be back exhibiting, challenged and inspired by the work of his daughters, Kira and Jenna.
