THIS WEEK'S TOP FIVE REASONS TO RENT

1. Privacy is something you just don't want.
2. Your family and friends look forward to being ticketed or towed away when they visit.
3. Waiting for a washer or dryer helps pass the time.
4. It's always nice to know what everyone else is having for dinner.
5. Your car looks better with those door dings in it.

If you agree with this list, chances are it's too late. If you disagree, maybe it's time to make that change.

My experience, combined with ReMax's associated staff and professionals can guide you through the buying process from securing financing to finding the right home for you. All you have to do is call:
