Rash of automobile break-ins nets thieves $9,000 in goods

Halton Regional Police are investigating a rash of automobile break-ins that occurred this week in underground parking lots.

Eight vehicles were broken into on Wylie Circle in Georgetown between 11 p.m. Sept. 13 and 6:40 a.m. Sept. 14. Stereos were stolen from five of the vehicles. Also taken were cell phones and CDs. Value of the stolen items is approximately $6,000.

The previous night four vehicles were broken into at an underground parking lot on Mountainview Rd. between 3 a.m. and 9 a.m. Three stereos, two cell phones, glasses and other items were taken. The approximate value of those items is $3,000.

In all cases, windows were smashed to gain entry into the vehicles.
