Bantam Hawks capture provincial silver

The Hawks were edged 4-3 by Peterborough in the opening game of the tournament. Mastalerz fanned 11 batters over seven innings while Ashleigh McIndoe paced the offence with a two-run triple.

The Hawks started their journey to the final with a 9-3 victory over South London. Keri Lindsay broke the game open with a bases-loaded triple in the fourth. Jenn Lukas retired the side in order in the seventh to seal the win.

Next up, the Hawks downed Milton 5-1. Mastalerz struck out 13 in six innings and Amrit Dhillion went 3-for-4. The Hawks then cruised to a 9-2 win over Cobourg. Mandy Lee pitched a four-hitter and helped herself out with three hits. Mastalerz also had three hits, including a double and Jackie Schenk had two singles.

In a rematch against Peterborough, Andrea Carella delivered a two-run single in the sixth and Becky Digirolamo, Lindsay and Dhillion were each 2-for-3 in a 4-1 win. Mastalerz turned in another strong outing, firing a two-hitter and striking out nine.

Halton Hills blasted Belleville 10-0 in its next match. Ashleigh Pechaluk and Mastalerz were 4-for-4 and Meghann Williams was 3-for-4. That victory moved the Hawks in to the semifinals where they met Kingston.

Lindsay tripled to score Mastalerz and then came home on a single by Dhillion to stake the Hawks to a 2-0 lead in the first inning. That's all they would get—and need—as Mastalerz pitched a three-hitter and struck out 13. The Hawks did not allow a runner past second base in the entire game.
