Country dance tonight

BY BETTY SOJKA
Ballinafad news

Get those hands ready to clap and feet to thump at the music happening on Friday, Sept. 24, at 8 p.m. to midnight at the Ballinafad Community Centre. There will be square, Scottish, line and country dancing plus polkas. Marion's Country Band will also be on hand to delight everyone. Cost is $5/person or $15/family. A great family night is what this promises to be! Don't miss out!

There were 29 folks who got together for a night of euchre on Thursday, Sept. 16 at the community centre. Ernie Pearce came away as the big winner overall with 98 points. A score of 95 points earned Marlene Haskins second place. There was a tie for third place with Lydia Dyball and Don Milton both getting 90 points. Grace Brown and May Milton both had four lone hands which was another tie. Low score was won by Rae Parker with 29 points. Sandwiches and refreshments were enjoyed afterwards.

The next euchre will be on Thursday, Sept. 30, at 7:30 p.m. Cost is only $3/person. Everyone is welcome.

The Senior Choir at the United Church has started up their practice nights at 7:30 p.m. every Thursday night. If you like to sing, just drop in.
