

Toy Library re-opens

Halton Hills Toy Library re-opens tomorrow night, Nov. 11, 7:15 p.m. at St. Andrew's United Church, 89 Mountainview Rd., Georgetown.

The library is now a program of the Halton Hills Community Support and Information and shares its space with Georgetown Parent Child Centre.

Anne's Cartage moved the toys and equipment to the new location and Tom Gouthro renovated the space.

The library was previously housed on Armstrong Ave. in space donated by Dave McNally.

Library hours will be Tuesdays, 10:30-11:45 a.m.; Wednesdays, 7:15-8:15 p.m.; Saturdays, 10:30-11:30 a.m. Membership fees will remain the same with a special rate for members of the Georgetown Parent-Child Centre.

The public is welcome to attend tomorrow's celebration. For more information contact Katherine, 873-6502.

COMMUNITY DIGEST

Floats wanted

Anyone wishing to enter a float in the upcoming Acton Santa Claus parade is asked to submit their entry form.

Bill Spielvogel, chairman for Acton Santa Claus Parade, said entry forms were sent to groups that have participated in the past but response has been slow so far. He said he anticipates most groups will return for the Nov. 20 parade but encouraged them to get the entries in as soon as possible.

Prizes will be award for the best float in five categories (overall, school, commercial, service club and other).

Call Spielvogel at 853-2924 for more information.

Christmas house tour

The Deck the Halls Christmas House Tour will be held Nov. 20,

4-7 p.m. in Acton. Four homes and one church will be decorated for Christmas by three Acton designers to showcase the products of many of Acton's downtown businesses.

Visitors on the tour are eligible to win a $100 shopping spree in downtown Acton.

Tickets, $6, are available at The Needle Gnome, Wetherby's, at any of the participating businesses or by call the Acton BIA, 853-1031, ext. 274.

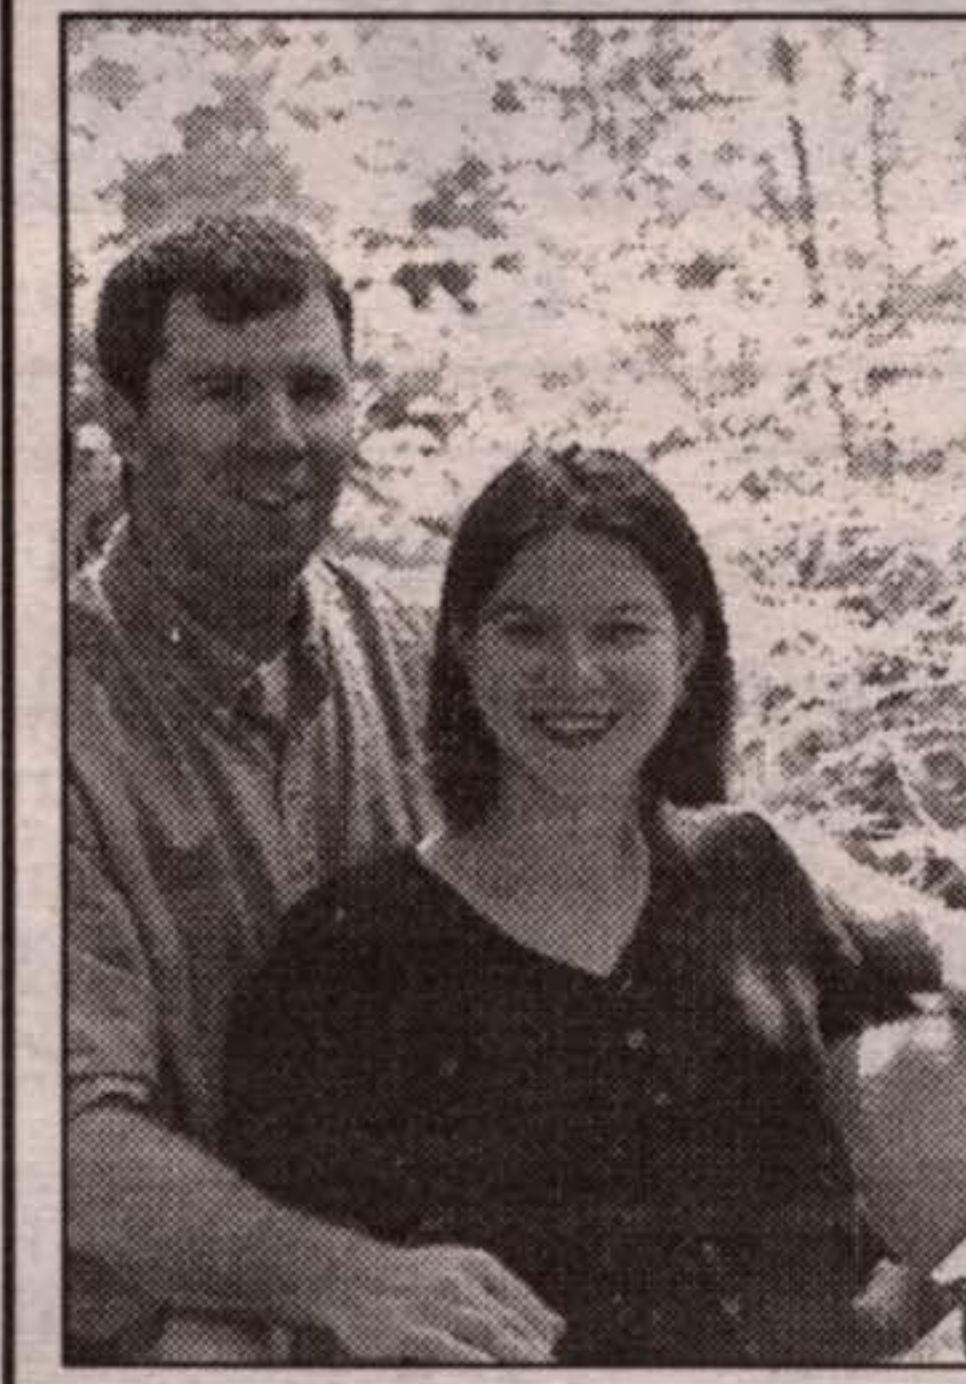

All proceeds to the Building Our Future fund-raising campaign of the Acton Agricultural Society.

Scholarship winner

Kerry Alexander of Norval has been selected for a $1,000 Monsanto Agribusiness Scholarship. She was among 10 students from the Prairies, Ontario and Quebec selected from the 245 applications.

Judging was based on the student's academic achievement, community involvement and future vision of agriculture in Canada.
