

Glen hall AGM next week

The Glen Williams Town Hall Committee annual general meeting (AGM) will be held Nov. 18, 7:30 p.m. The committee works hard taking care of the on-going improvements to the building but more importantly is behind many events that bring us together as a community, especially Canada Day. At the AGM, the committee for the coming year will be chosen but it's also an opportunity for all members of the community to find out about and support their work.

Don't forget that Nov. 27 will be the Coffee House at the Town Hall, featuring the Glen Band, tickets at Clay Concepts.

Another session of Glen Group Learning has begun. Nov. 16, 2-4 p.m. will be The Social Impact of Computing and Nov. 23, Fast Track in the Slow Lane. There will be one more lecture this month and then five more beginning in February. Pay $3 at the door, or $15 for all the lectures, it's a great deal. Call Doug or Barb Bryant 877-7476.

Glen Williams Community Association is encouraging all residents (not just members, but of course you're welcome to join!) to come out and discuss the village's future Nov. 20, 10 a.m., 12:30 p.m. or 3 p.m., join one of the sessions and give your input on the proposed secondary plan. The Town of Halton Hills has started accepting applications for membership on the steering committee for the secondary plan. The information that will be gathered will be passed on to the committee so that they will begin with our vision. Be sure that your voice is heard.

Norval neighbors volunteer to clean up village

The volunteer clean-up day was held on Saturday, October 23. The volunteer clean-up crew met at the Hollywood Bar & Grill. Ann and Clayton Evans, who organized the event, were joined by Andy Castandi, Mark Heinmiller, Bill Appleby, Marie Carney, Diana Pooke, Stella Bryant, Tom Pettingill, Jamie Crammond, Brenda & Kenny Bryce, Theresa & Peter Scholz, Amit Dhir, Bob Kipfer and Herman of Herman's Used Cars. Jim Dodds provided extra garbage bags.

At least 20 bags of garbage were collected in the village-wide sweep, as well as some larger articles. A delicious chili con carne lunch followed at the Hollywood.

There are no more tulips available—2,400 tulips have been sold or planted, thanks to a hard-working beautification committee.

Norval Sings! is holding rehearsals every Saturday at Norval Presbyterian Church. New choristers are still welcome. Call Elizabeth at 873-8721, or Lois at 702-0374.

Music and Celebration is back!

Norval and Union Presbyterian Churches invite you to an evening of Music and Celebration with the joint choirs on Sunday, Nov. 21, 7:30 p.m. at Norval Presbyterian Church. Child care is available; light refreshments will follow. Come on out, and bring a friend!

Congratulations to Monica Saarlaid and Bruce Smith who were married at Norval Presbyterian Church on Sept. 15. Debbie Ann Howse and Mike McElroy were married at Norval United Church on Sept. 25. Congratulations to the happy couple. Congratulations also to Barbara Smith and Tom Ennema, whose wedding was at Union Presbyterian Church on Oct. 2 and to Adam Bond and Kelly Gardner who were married in the gazebo at Gage Park in Brampton, Oct. 9.

Last month the baptism of several children were celebrated at Norval United Church: Michael Cordick, son of Dennis and Loretta; Jack Laidlaw, son of David and Ellen; Jade and Alexander Martin, children of Frank and Claire Martin. Congratulations to these families on this important occasion. On October 31, Madison and Victoria Lane were baptized along with their cousin Matthew Heer at Union Presbyterian. Congratulations to proud parents Shirley and Shawn Lane and Rob and Bonnie Heer.

Huttonville and Home United churches, formerly sister congregations with Norval United, celebrated their new status as a joint charge with a Covenanting service at Huttonville United Church on Sunday, October 17.

Rev. Cathie Ellerby led the service, which featured special music provided by a combined choir and the Grace Church Mainstreet Band. Organist, Hugh Symons dedicated a hymn, We are One, which was written especially for the occasion. Councillor John Hutton brought greetings from the City of Brampton, and Councillor Marilyn Morrison represented the Town of Caledon.

The history of Home church was presented by Mary Garbutt, and Huttonville's history by Wes Beamish. Jon Harding represented Home Church and Roy Abrams Huttonville, and scriptures were read by Bill Crawford of Home and Bernice Whaley of Huttonville. A buffet luncheon followed the service.
