

Win a Millennium cook book

Deadline for entry, Wednesday, Nov. 24

Get ready for the upcoming festive season with favorite recipes of the past highlighted in Jean Paré's Company's Coming Millennium Edition cookbook.

This new cookbook commemorates the evolution of home cooking over the years with 250 all-new quick and easy recipes plus more than 30 family favorites that have withstood the test of the time.

Company's Coming and the Independent & Free Press will be giving away copies to eight winners in our Millennium Cookbook contest.

Just answer the following trivia questions, and mail, fax or drop-off your responses to 211 Armstrong Ave., Georgetown, Ont., L7G 4X5 or fax: 873-0398. (There is a mail slot in the front door for after business hours.)

Include your name, day-time telephone number and address on each entry. Only one entry per person.

Eight winners will be selected at random from all the correct entries.

Deadline for entry is Wednesday, Nov. 24 at 5 p.m. Winners will be announced in the Friday, Nov. 26 edition.

Assistance for adults with hearing loss

Does a hearing problem cause you to feel frustrated when talking with members of your family? Do you have difficulty understanding someone speaking in a whisper? An audiologist can help.

Hearing loss occurs gradually as people age, sometimes even going unnoticed. If you suspect a problem, contact an audiologist — a professional trained to evaluate and treat people with hearing disorders.

Check the yellow pages or visit our web site to find a speech-language pathologist or audiologist near you: www.caslpa.ca

Submit your millennium stories

Hey readers, we need your help! The Independent & Free Press is publishing a special commemorative millennium edition in January, marking the most important moments in the history of Halton Hills.

Readers can participate by writing and submitting their stories about an event— large or small—that happened to them. These captions can be personal memories of events, people or a time gone by.

Just jot down 30 words or less and fax or mail it to the Independent & Free Press, (905) 873-0398 or 211 Armstrong Ave., Georgetown, Ont., L7G 4X5. Captions need to be submitted by December 1, 1999.

Why not make it a family project and learn more about yourself and your community.
