

Georgetown Santa Claus parade winners announced

Ten trophy winners have been named for their entries in last weekend's Georgetown Lions Santa Claus Parade.

In the best theme entry category (Ray Harlow Trophy) the North Halton Beavers took first place and Georgetown Christian Fellowship placed second.

Georgetown Pipe Band was named the best marching band and Guelph Sea Cadets placed second.

Centennial Middle School came first in the best entry by a community group category and Holy Cross Parish placed second.

Williamson Industries placed first in the best commercial entry category and Hillside Sand and Gravel came in second.

Friends and Neighbors of Davis Cr. had the most creative entry and Lo Duca Tile was second.

The Acton Santa Claus parade will be held this Saturday. The annual parade, organized by the Acton Fire Fighters will begin at 1 p.m.

The parade begins on Acton Blvd. by McKenzie-Smith Bennett and finishes at Prospect Park.

Acton High School hosts fourth annual craft sale Saturday

The fourth annual Acton High School Craft Show will be held on Saturday, Nov. 20 from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the school, 21 Cedar Rd., Acton.

There will be 112 vendor tables offering a wide variety of items as well as a bake sale, raffle and refreshments.

All proceeds from table rentals, admission, bake sale, raffle and refreshments will go directly to equipment for Acton High students. Items purchased for the school in the past include a reference cart and books; camera, tripod, battery, and carry case; skeleton; brake drum and disc lathe; sound and computer equipment; three Baby Think It Over dolls, TV/VCR and stand; camcorder and tripod.

Parents and students are urged to drop baked goods off at the school Friday afternoon or Saturday morning between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m.

Library offers gift-making day

Kids, are you looking for a gift for someone special? Create your own at the Halton Hills Public Libraries on PA day, Dec. 3.

The library is offering this program at both branches— Georgetown and Acton, 2-3:30 p.m. A $3 fee, to cover cost of the materials— must be paid at the time of registration.

Register at the Information Services Desk in Georgetown or at the Circulation Desk in Acton. Participants must be eight years of age or older. Spaces are limited and will be filled on a first-come basis.

For information, call 873-2681 (Georgetown) or 853-0301 (Acton).

DO NOT PAY UNTIL SPRING 2000

Special financing rates available on most cars, trucks, vans & sport utility vehicles.
