

POLICE BLOTTER

Tire stolen off car

Three tires, valued at about $700, were stolen off of a 1994 Ford Escort parked at Park Lincoln Mercury on Hwy. 7 sometime last Sunday night or Monday morning. The vehicle had been jacked up so the tires could be removed.

Hit and run car found

A 1995 Dodge Neon that had been involved in a fail to remain accident in Peel was recovered on the Tenth Line last Tuesday morning. The car's rear end was damaged.

Males overturn news boxes

At about 11 p.m. Saturday four males were seen overturning a real estate news box in the Main St. and George St. area and throwing a concrete block onto the railway tracks. The four were gone when police arrived. They removed the block from the tracks. Detective Sgt. Jackie Gordon said that those responsible for throwing the block on the tracks could be charged with mischief endangering life and if they are apprehended they will be dealt with severely.

What You Said

'The provincial government is setting up a task force to look into gasoline prices. Do you think it will have an impact on prices?'

Ken Hall,
fork lift operator,
Georgetown

"I would think they should be able to but I don't think they will."

Linda Longwell,
publishing,
Stewarttown

"Honestly, no. I think the gas companies have a monopoly and there's nobody that can fight them."

Justin Sketcher,
punch press operator, Erin

"Probably not. I don't think they will."

Charles Gall,
retired,
Georgetown

"Well, if it's up to Harris, they will. If there's anyone who can do it, Harris can do it."

John Trisic,
sales,
Georgetown

"No, I think (the price) is whatever the market will bear."

Are you turning 69 this year?

If yes, then you need to make some important decisions about your RRSP. Government legislation stipulates that you must convert your RRSPs into retirement income by December 31st of the year in which you turn 69.

A decision this important demands careful consideration. At ScotiaMcLeod, we look at all aspects of your financial situation and help you choose the alternative that best meets your needs.

Call Scott Becksted at (905) 796-5024 to receive your free copy of Retirement Income: Considering the Options, which outlines the features and benefits of RRIFs and annuities, and looks at the questions you need to ask yourself to make the right decision. Scott Becksted is a Georgetown resident and will be pleased to visit you in your office or residence.
