

Santa in Acton

The streets were lined in Acton Saturday to watch the annual Acton Fire Fighters Santa Claus parade. From top, clockwise, Kassia Vanveen, 7, of Rockwood gets a treat from clown, Rick Phillips; Santa waves to the crowd including Haley McLeod, 3, of Kitchener who returned to her former hometown to see the North Pole visitor. Jake Alward, 7, and his sister Julie, 5, watch the parade from a different perspective—on the Tall Linthouse Cole and Beavers float. The venerable Acton Citizens' Band led the parade. They will perform a concert at the Acton Legion, 110 South, Sunday.
